

RUNAWAY BOYS FOUND.

Joseph and Henry Bazzini, Oakland boys who ran away some days ago, and for whom the police have been searching, are in custody at Chicago, and will be brought back by an Oakland officer, it was decided today. The boys, aged 13 and 17, left their home at 9339 Hollis Street while their mother was at work, according to her complaint to the police and went to work in the fruit district.

Dresses for Fleet Week---

California's proudest moment in her history is the welcoming home of the Pacific Fleet. California's own and her adopted daughters must look their best next week—must live up to the tradition of being both beautiful and fashionable.

Street Frocks of Tricotine and Serge

The new one-piece dresses are of navy tricotine or serge, with a few in brown. They are handsomely embroidered or braid trimmed, and many are made with tunics. The lines are straight and youthful, which is one reason women of taste wear these smart frocks with furs or coats.

Charming Afternoon and Reception Gowns

For more formal wear there are many lovely gowns to choose from. Black satin models, with short sleeves and round necks are to be much worn. Then there are Georgettes in black and colors; Georgette and satin combinations; the rich tricolettes in various colorings and a number of newly arrived black velvets.

Dancing Frocks for Maid and Matron

Those who will dance with sailor lads next week are invited to see the bery of pretty frocks just in. Dainty solid colors, opalescent effects obtained with net and chiffon, and charming brocaded models with quaintly draped skirts and basque bodices.

Dresses for all Occasions are from $27.50 to $100

COAT CHAT

THIS year's coats are luxurious in appearance and feel. Many new materials are being shown, such as peachbloom, tinseltone, chameleon cloth and evora. And the old favorites, Bolivia, duvetyn, duvet de laine and silvertone, with or without collars and cuffs of fur, $32.50 to $232.50.

SUIT STYLES

BROWN in every possible shade is Fashion's edict for the Fall suits. The styles are so varied as to permit one to wear the type best suited to one's requirements, $39.50 to $139.

Liberal Credit Is Yours

When planning your Fleet Week attire, remember that Friedman's LIBERAL CHARGE ACCOUNT SYSTEM is at your convenience. Why not make use of your credit here, as hundreds do, to their satisfaction?

Oakland Railroad Strike Is Over
Men Are Still Out Across the Bay

quent congestion stagnated railroad traffic.

The Western Pacific's passenger service was not interrupted because it established a temporary passenger station in Oakland.

Suspension from the brotherhoods was the threat held over the yardmen by the union leaders, who gave the men 24 hours to resume their posts.

The Oakland strikers decided that they would not require the 24 hours and returned at once.

ALL CANNERS IN STATE WERE THREATENED.

Had the strike continued all canneries in the state would have had to close down, it is said. President J. K. Armistead of the California Fruit Packing Corporation said that this would be the result if the freight embargo continued 48 hours.

The strike is still on in the southern part of the state, around Los Angeles, and as a result the movement of mails to that city, as well as freight and passengers, is greatly handicapped.

Mail was sent from San Francisco yesterday by the steamer Governor, which took 2100 pounds, and arrangements were made for shipments by a Pacific Mail boat, which will sail at San Pedro on her way to Mexico. The steamer Humboldt left Los Angeles yesterday with nine tons of mail for the north, and the steamship Spokane, leaving today, will bring 3000 bags for San Francisco and points north and east.

Profiteering by automobile drivers on the run between Los Angeles and San Francisco bay was stopped by the fixing of the rate at $12, plus war tax, for a one-way trip, by the Railroad Commission. It was reported that some drivers were charging $30 for the trip.

EASTBOUND TRAINS ONLY TO BE HANDLED.

STOCKTON, Aug. 28.—What action local railroad men will take depends on the outcome of a mass meeting held this morning. After making their jobs, in accordance with their agreement with the Tracy workers, the men obeyed instructions of their officers and returned to work. However, they will only handle eastbound trains. How long they will do this depends on whether the workers in reserve go out.

AUTOS TAKE TOURISTS FROM BALFOUR TO E. A. BY UNITED PRESS.

LEASING WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

STOCKTON, Aug. 28.—The tourist congestion here has been relieved today and Balfour is swinging back to its normal civic life. A continued stream of automobiles and automobile trucks from San Bernardino and cities of Orange County, particularly Santa Ana, yesterday picked up the remaining several hundred marooned passengers and took them to points where electric transportation could be obtained to Los Angeles.

STRIKING SWITCHMEN UPON FROM WOODMEN.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28.—Irwin R. Day, striking Southern Pacific switchman, who was shot on the night of August 21, while passing a Pacific Electric car barn, died last night in a local hospital. Day's alleged assailant, Meyer Smuckler, a railway guard, was at liberty early today on $1000 bail.

SAN JOSE SWITCHMEN TO TAKE ANOTHER STRIKE VOTE.

SAN JOSE, Calif., Aug. 28.—Railroad switchmen, who had voted yesterday to continue on strike, met today to give further consideration to the matter and take another vote.

Leaders would make no statement as to the probable decision, but a number of individual strikers said considerable sentiment had developed in favor of returning to work.

SEVERAL THOUSAND STRIKE AT OAKLAND.

CLIVE, O., Aug. 28.—Between two and three thousand workers employed by the Champion Machine and Forging Company today went on strike. The men are mostly members of the blacksmiths' union. They demand higher wages and better working conditions.

STRIKE FORCES PEACH PRICE TO TWO CENTS.

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 28.—Eight carloads of peaches held here by the railroad strike were sold at auction by the Southern Pacific today. Scores of families bought from five to ten lug boxes at two cents per pound.

STOCKTON R. R. MEN AVOID STRIKE.

STOCKTON, Aug. 28.—Organized trainmen of Stockton, at a meeting held today, voted that they can be of more assistance to the striking railroad men of Los Angeles by remaining at work, and not going out on strike.

Officials of the Southern Pacific assured them that they will not be asked to handle any cars that will embarrass them, and asked that they remain at work and fulfill their contracts.

The men decided to send a resolution to President Wilson, asking that he use his offices to bring about a settlement of the strike situation on the Pacific Electric.

U. S. FLYER LEADS IN AERIAL DERBY

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

RUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 28.—A report received here at 10:30 says that Aviator Slater, who was believed lost, is safe at Mount Clemens, Mich. Slater, a Canadian entrant, disappeared on the Buffalo-to-Toronto leg of the flight.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, MINNEOLA, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Unless his time is beaten before the New York-Toronto aerial derby ends tomorrow night, Sergeant Frank Coombs, an American flyer, who started from the Canadian city, probably will be judged the winner of the 1912-mile race and the $10,000 prize Coombs gave his time in the air as 511 minutes for the round trip. Major Rudolph Schroeder, another Toronto starter, made the double journey in 575 minutes, according to his log book, while the flying time of Lieutenant R. P. Minkoff, a Minneola starter, was 561 minutes. Coombs and Minkoff used De Havilland machines, Schroeder a V-7.

Official announcement of the winners of the cash prize and trophies may not be made until Saturday night.

Nineteen contestants in the race had completed the round trip between Minneola and Toronto when flying was resumed this morning. The weather conditions had improved overnight. It was cool with a stiff breeze, but the sun was shining and there was no prospect of further rainstorms.

Dye Explains That He Was Not Lured

Denying that he had been lured to a room by two men and a woman, where his pocketbook, containing $30, was allegedly taken from him, Harry B. Dye, riveter foreman at a local shipyard, today asked that publicly be given to the supposedly true facts of the case. Dye, according to his own story, met Andrew Scott, one of the men arrested on his complaint, who, in turn, introduced him to Edward Fought, the other recent defendant in court.

The two men invited him to dinner at their flat, Sixteenth and Clay streets, according to Dye, and it was there that the alleged theft occurred. The "young woman," Dye says, was really Fought's wife, whom he met for the first time July 21, date of the alleged theft.

Fought and Scott were released by Judge Samuels, August 25. Dye denies published statements that he changed the amount taken from him, in court testimony, from the original $30 to $5.

Grocery Stores to Be Closed Monday

The grocers of this city have decided to remain closed all day Monday, according to E. R. Hogan, manager of the Retail Grocers' association. This decision was reached at a meeting of the grocers last night. Members of the association expressed the belief that in view of the fact that the Pacific fleet will arrive Monday the day should be observed as a general holiday.

Lad Chases Ice Wagon is Run Down by Auto

In quest of a piece of ice on a warm day, 6-year-old Raymond Seaborn started after an ice wagon at Hobart street and Broadway last evening. Today he is in bandages as the result. He was run down by an automobile driven by S. Barrow, 2093 Harrison street. At the Emergency hospital, where the child was taken, it was found that he was suffering from cuts and bruises, none serious.

HARDLY HAD THE COLOR OF LIFE

Nothing J. S. Stone Aged Seemed to Nourish Him—Is Strong and Ruddy Now.

"I used to have my doubts about some of the statements I saw in the papers about Tanlac, but I know now it is an unusual medicine for I have used it myself with wonderful results."

J. S. Stone of 1190 Mission Road, Los Angeles, Cal., who made the above statement, holds a responsible position in a leading hospital—and has one hundred men and women under his management.

"I know Tanlac has merit," he continued, "because I have started a great many people taking it, since it did so much for me, and in every case except one, I have had the same good report. I am glad to state my case for the benefit of others who may be in need of such a medicine."

"I never knew what sickness was until three years ago, in July, when I was taken very sick. My case was diagnosed as pernicious anemia in its worst form and I was finally taken to a hospital."

"For the first four months I was as low as a person could be and live. At the end of the second and third months I had improved so I could get around a little, but was not a living skeleton and very weak."

"I had not a particle of red color and seemed to receive no benefit from anything I ate. Well, after eight months I could get around and discount my to perform some very light duties, but just could not get any strength and hardly had the color of life."

"I began taking it in very small doses and very soon realized that I was improving. I have now used bottles of Tanlac and it has proved wonderful in my case. I have good circulation of the blood, a normal color and feel strong and well. I have improved so much I am now able to do my work without trouble which is certainly quite a change in my condition. I feel very thankful indeed, that I am feeling well and strong again and I owe it all to just a few things, good treatment at the hospital and the right medicine at the right time, for there's no question but that Tanlac gave me an "extra" build, my blood and save me blood circulation when I needed it most. I feel a keen sympathy for all suffering people, and am making this statement in the hope that others will be benefited by
it. I believe Tanlac will help anyone in need of a system builder and blood purifier."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Drug Company Stores.—Advertisement.

SUGGESTIONS TO PASSENGERS

On San Francisco Pier Day, September 1st, travel from East Bay points to San Francisco will be very heavy.

Order of the Government, ferry boat service must be discontinued during the passage of the fleet between 11:00 a. m. and 1:00 p. m.

In order to accommodate our passengers desiring to view the entrance of the Pacific Fleet into San Francisco Bay, this company will operate extra trains and boats to San Francisco on September 1st beginning at 6 o'clock in the morning.

We recommend and urge our passengers to take early trains for San Francisco and avoid the rush.

New Home Treatment
for Banishing Hairs

(Beauty Topics)

With the aid of a delicate paste, it is an easy matter for any woman to remove every trace of hair or fuzz from face, neck and arms. Enough of the powdered delicate and water is mixed into a thick paste and spread on the hairy surface for about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed.
This completely removes the hair, but to avoid disappointment, get the delicate in an original package.

GENERAL BOTHA, BOER HERO, DIES

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—General
Louis Botha, prime minister of the Union of South Africa and one of the greatest leaders of the Boer forces in the Boer war, died suddenly of heart failure, said a Central News dispatch from Pretoria today.

General Louis Botha, hero of Spionkop, victor of Colenso, farmer and sheepraiser by hereditary, became world famous as a soldier during the Boer war. He was born in Natal in 1864. He had his share of fighting as a young man, with the native tribes in that district, and after serving under the Zulu chief, Dinuzulu. He followed the Boers in Vryheid, in what was then the new republic. This was afterwards incorporated with the Transvaal, and Botha represented Vryheid in the Transvaal Volksraad. He took the more liberal view in all political matters during the years that followed, but when war broke out he led the Vryheid commands forth in the first of the Boer wars. He was directed the Boers with conspicuous success at Colenso and Spionkop, and after Botha's death, he succeeded him by his express desire as commander-general. After the conclusion of peace in 1902, he visited England and continental Europe.

MARTINEZ, Aug. 28.—Efforts to prevent the reorganization of the Oakland, Alameda and Eastern Railroad were made when the suit of the Union Trust Company against the railroad was filed in Judge E. J.
Lathrop's court this morning by Ray Smith, representing thirty bonds of the railroad. This is approximately 3 per cent of the total outstanding bonds. The minority which Smith represents is said to desire a sale of the outstanding paper of the company rather than the proposed reorganization. The Union Trust Company has agreed to finance the reorganization and has taken over its mortgages for this purpose. The suit is filed in the amount of $50,000. The hearing started at this afternoon and will be continued also to consume most of tomorrow.

The gentle rain slipped one over today on the weather prophet.

Ordinarily, at this time of the year, the prophet is entirely safe when he says: "Fair today, except clouds and fog in the early morning." He might almost let the forecast stand and go fishing.

That was what he predicted for today, but he was a bit wrong.

About 10 o'clock, the clouds, duty predicted, evidently became weary of inaction in a wool-filled sky. They shifted gears and let down a few raindrops. Several other turnouts and decided to get in the swim—or put the world in it.

Aged Man is Victim of Heart Failure

A victim, according to the coroner's office, of heart failure, Die-rich Bruns, 78 years old, is dead at his home, 474 Railroad avenue.
His body was found late yesterday by Mrs. Muzdre, a neighbor, the aged man apparently having dropped dead as he sat in a chair on his front porch. Bruns was a retired farmer. He is survived by a son and daughter, whose names the police have not been able to obtain.
The body is in custody of the coroner's office, and an autopsy will be held.

Police to Hunt for $200 Worth of Loot

A thorough search is being conducted today by Police Inspectors Duffon and Mulhern of the pawnshop detail to recover $200 worth of valuables taken yesterday by a burglar who jimmied the window at the residence of P. A. McKenzie, 708
Lakeside avenue, in broad daylight.
Besides cleaning up all the silver plate, McKenzie lost several pieces of expensive jewelry.

GOV. STEPHENS WELCOMES BIG PACIFIC FLEET

California's welcome to the Pacific fleet and those who man the vessels was voiced in a proclamation issued yesterday by Governor William D. Stephens on behalf of the people of the state. The text follows:

"California, in unstinting measure, extends its greetings to the great fleet entering San Francisco harbor. To its entire personnel, from the admiral commanding to the enlisted men in the depths of the stateroom, we offer the fullness of our love and admiration. May the placid waters of our coast and bay under the genial rays of our California sun, dissipate all unpleasant recollections of the nerve-racking days and nights of vigil through which they have so recently and gloriously passed. After much anxiety we have our heroes home again and our joy on their safe return is accentuated by pride and gratitude. Welcome! Thrice welcome to our shores!"

HORSES, WAGONS STOLEN.

Horses were the principal object of attention by thieves instead of the usual automobiles last night, according to the police reports. Last night the police did not receive a single stolen auto report, but two persons reported thefts of horses and wagons. Nicholas Lukieski, 850 Madison street, reports his team lost and Mike Suponi, 1125 Tenth street, reports a horse and small green wagon stolen.

Renters Will Organize League Landlords Are Declared Oppressive Rates Being Rapidly Advanced

Mrs. E. S. Mathews, of 2993 Harrison street, today announced her intention of forming a Rent Producers' Association in the Eastbay at once, as a result of the increases in apartment house rates.

Living on her two-room and kitchenette apartment at Caldwell Court has been raised since last April from $40, she declared, to $57.50. The notice of the latest raise has just been received, dated August 24, and effective October 15. Mrs. Mathews said that as charter members of her association she will have virtually all the tenants of the Caldwell Court.

The action of her landlord, Mrs. Mathews pointed out, was further evidence of the reported intention of apartment house owners generally to raise rents about October 1, in spite of the statement by representatives of the association that no such action was contemplated as an association.

"The apartment house keepers are taking advantage of the scarcity of housing facilities and of their combination in an association to force up rents to a preposterous figure," Mrs. Mathews said. "It is high time the renters organized, too. I will be pleased to hear from all who desire to assist in this movement. They may call me at Oakland 1330."

RAPID ADVANCES.

"When we first moved here we paid $40 a month. A month later we received notice of an increase to $41.25, and just a month ago the rent was increased to $45. We are now advised that beginning October 15, the rate is to go up to $55 and that the telephone will be charged for at an additional $2.50 a month. The apartment house pays only $1.25 a month for the telephone and charges us twice that. Light and gas are extra.

"For a small apartment, far from modern, we are required to pay this sum and it is no wonder we are up to arms. We live on the third floor and there is no elevator.

"Our case is not in the least exceptional. For instance, Mrs. E. Hedrick, who lives in another apartment at the Caldwell, had a boy in the service. In France, her rent was $27.50 when the boy went away and of course the proprietor could not raise until he returned. The day after the boy came back the mother found a notice that the rent was to be raised to $35. The young man hadn't obtained work yet. Then the next morning there was notice of another $5 raise. She has received notice now that beginning October 15, the rent for her apartment will be $45.

"In the notice we received the landlord said that the rates had not been raised during the war, but friends have told me otherwise. They tell me that two years ago the rent on this apartment was only $25."

Mathews' notice received by Mrs. Mathews follows:

"Notice of Change of Terms of Lease.

"Mrs. E. S. Mathews: You are hereby notified that at the expiration of your tenancy from month to month, which will be on October 15, 1919, the terms of your lease on the premises rented from this company, situate in the city of Oakland, county of Alameda, state of California, and described and designated as that apartment or room known as apartment No. 24 in the Caldwell Court apartments, located at 2993 Harrison boulevard, will be changed as follows, to-wit:

"The monthly rent therefor will be fifty-five dollars per month payable in advance at the beginning of each and every month. A telephone is in the apartment and an additional charge of $2.50 per month will be made.

"Dated San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 24, 1919.

"PIONEER REALTY & INVESTMENT CO.,

"A. J. TIECKER, President."

Accompanying the notice was the following letter:

"In notifying you of the increased rent rate the company desires to call your respectful attention to the fact that while for the last four years there has been a general increase of apartment and hotel rates throughout the city and country generally, this company did not raise its rates during the war.

"We trust you will appreciate our having continued the low rate where in equal location.

"We hope, now that conditions have become more settled, that you will be able, with less hardship, to adjust yourself to the new scale of rents, which is general throughout the country, as your interests may dictate.

"We are glad to have you as a guest, and hope you will decide to remain with us at the new but necessary scale of rents."

Several letters protesting at raises in other apartment houses were received today by The TRIBUNE.

SHIP LANDING SITE FOR AIR PILOTS VIEWED

A group of Alamedans and Oakland Chamber of Commerce people inspected the Bay Farm Island tract yesterday afternoon. The tract has been offered the government on a purchase proposition by the Charles M. Wood Co. of Oakland, with free use of the land during the visit of the Pacific fleet to San Francisco bay. The party visiting the tract were Wood, Joseph Gaine, Joseph King, Alvin Jacob Strubel, Gene Bowles, Otto H. Fischer of Oakland; City Manager H. H. Hewes; City Auditor F. J. Croll and E. C. Soules of the City of Alameda and the Alameda Chamber of Commerce.

The tract comprises two holdings, embracing a total of 2700 acres of level marsh land, most of which already protected from tidal overflow by dykes, and is already under cultivation, a record-breaking crop of barley has been raised on the soil. The tract is owned by the Wood Co. of Oakland, which has been repeatedly flooded to get rid of the soil in the ground before a crop could be raised. Men are now bailing the big hay crop. The two tracts embraced in the offer include the eastern tract owned by the E. B. & A. L. Stone Co., and on which a dredger is now engaged throwing up a dyke and filling up sloughs, and the western portion on which they bay crop was raised and which is owned by the Alameda City Land Co. The price asked is $750 an acre, and Managing Director Joseph King of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce said that the government would not pay over $200 an acre for a permanent aviation field or tract for a blimp headquarters. It is suggested that the owners might tender the property to the government for aerial use, retaining the agricultural use of the land, and Wood said that the idea was worth consideration and would be submitted to the owners.

At the outset there was some confusion in the minds of some of the viewers who confounded the aerial mail landing field with the proposed hydroplane and military airship field which the owners of the property have in mind. Joseph King, secretary of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce aviation committee, said that the tract would serve admirably for a blimp landing field, but that the Oakland Chamber of Commerce tract west of Webster street for the aerial mail route landing, as being in the desired location for expeditious transportation of mails from the field to the Oakland post office. King believed that the property was ideally located for accommodating a huge blimp station.

Maps were exhibited showing the direct way to the property for the transcontinental line entering Oakland. The nature of the soil was considered excellent, though it was claimed that face cracks underneath the loose top soil would have to be filled by plowing and harrowing. Oakland viewers appeared to be in favor of the Oakland waterfront tract for immediate aerial use, but admitted that a large acreage, such as is demanded by the government for airship and hydroplane operation, could probably not be secured west of Webster. The aerial mail landing requires a tract about 1800 feet square or about seventy acres.

The Bay Farm Island tract is level, being but a few feet above sea level, and has overlying it the same air currents and atmosphere as covers the bay. There are no obstructions, in the way of trees, wires, poles, etc.

Following the inspection, the viewers returned to Alameda and Oakland with the understanding that a further move might be made by the owners, or that the proposal might be taken up by the Chamber of Commerce and municipal officials of Oakland and Alameda whenever it appeared that the prospects were good for securing an aviation base location on the east side of the bay.

New Clerical Fund Will Be Requested

The city council is to be asked shortly to make an appropriation for the clerical work of the board of inquiry, which handles industrial accident claims of city employees. The board, consisting of Mayor Campbell, superintendent of streets, Health Officer Daniel Crosby, and City Attorney H. L. Hagan, is "interdepartmental," according to Hagan, meeting in any convenient office, and having no clerical force of its own.

The department heads are assigned to the board on the charter provision that extra duties may be imposed by the council on department heads. Their work being of an advisory nature in this case, the council has the right, Hagan holds, to create a clerk's office for the board of inquiry if this is deemed necessary. A clerk can be assigned from another department to this work also, by the council, Hagan holds. The request will probably be made next week.

Asks Divorce After Six-Hour Marriage

Six hours was the period of duration of the marital happiness of Mr. and Mrs. N. de May, according to the story related in the divorce complaint of Mrs. Carola de May, filed in the office of County Clerk William Campbell, yesterday afternoon. As the story developed and they parted.

The marriage was celebrated August 8, this year, ending the day following. The whole allegation of cruelty, upon which the complaint is based, is that he told her he did not love her and did not marry her for love.

SUGGESTIONS TO PASSENGERS

On San Francisco Fleet Day, September 1st, travel from East Bay points to San Francisco will be very heavy.

By order of the Government, ferry service must be discontinued during the passage of the fleet between 11:00 a. m. and 1:00 p. m. In order to accommodate passengers desiring to view the entrance of the Pacific Fleet into San Francisco Bay, this company will operate extra ferries from East Bay to San Francisco on September 1st beginning at 8 o'clock in the morning.

We recommend and urge our patrons to take early trains for San Francisco and avoid the rush.

ARRAIGN TRIO IN SHIPYARD GRAFT CASE

Hearings before Commissioner Thomas E. Hayden were faced today by three men accused in the federal complaints issued following examination of sale of government materials from the Liberty Shipyards at Alameda. Richard Mathewson, resident engineer, who surrendered himself to the United States marshal's office and is held on a $500 bond; C. E. Smith, his assistant, and Henry Stein, a ship material dealer, are the first three to face prosecution in connection with the case, and others may be also implicated, as the result of the shipyard probe.

The investigation is one of a number being conducted into the shipyards of the coast, following charges of fraud, of price-juggling and other irregularities in the handling of government work. The three men now held under bonds are accused of having sold material to themselves under fictitious names at a lower price than the government paid for the material. The investigation which led to the arrest was made at the instigation of J. T. Frey, district manager of the United States Shipping Board.

United States Attorney Annette Adams says that there is evidence in her office showing that a great number of transactions have taken place in connection with the Liberty shipyard plan in Alameda that may be found actionable by the government. The plan was planned, partly executed and then abandoned. Mathewson was held before the government officials, it is said, when his explanations of the sale of goods and materials to the government were unsatisfactory. The trio is accused of selling large stores of bolts, iron, spikes and other material at prices ridiculously below cost to the government and an automobile is included in the list, this being bought, it is said, by Mathewson.

Smith, as purchasing agent, is held as a direct accomplice. "There is evidence," said Mrs. Adams, federal attorney, "that these men sold material to themselves under fictitious names. The accused men were called before local representatives of the shipping board and could not give satisfactory explanations. The delivery of fourteen tons of spikes, with only four tons marked on the books, could hardly have been mistake, these and other incidents are in evidence," Mrs. Adams says that only smaller accessories are involved in the present probe, the larger machinery at the yard having been sold before Mathewson went on duty at the yard.

Romany Club Will Hike to Berkeley

On Friday evening of this week the Romany Patteran will lead to Live Oak park in Berkeley, for a campfire supper and short walk. Members and any girls who wish to accompany the club will meet at the southeast corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets, Oakland, at 6:25 p. m. and take the Grove street car to North Berkeley, taking supper and cup of coffee.

A number of the members have been taking their vacations this month, being scattered in various parts of the state. Miss Scotchier, Miss Annie Hayward and the secretary spent a very enjoyable time at Camp Montezano on the Russian river; Nettie Shade has been touring Southern California in an auto; Mrs. Jessie Lammont and Gladys Holcomb are enjoying auto trips in Northern California.

Raw Water and Rapid Sand

Rapid sand filtration is of comparatively recent origin. It is a method of purification following the processes of coagulation.

Coagulation is the changing of liquid (water in this case) to a thickened, curd-like state, not by evaporation but by chemical reaction.

Coagulation through the rapid sand process gathers from the raw water the clay particles and suspended impurities, including bacteria, into a jelly-like mass, and causes these to be retained on the grains of sand through which the raw water is allowed to pass at the rate of from 75 to 175 million gallons per acre per day.

When the filter bed of sand becomes clogged with this thick coating, it is agitated and cleaned by washing very rapidly with water in an upward direction, the reverse of that in which filtration is carried on.

This method of filtration is used in the modern and largest water plants in this country, and is the method used by this company.

Filtration and sterilization of water supplied by this company to residents of the East Bay region is carried on always by the most modern practical devices and methods known to expert water engineers.

MINOR PRAISES
LENINE, TROTSKY

Characterizing Lenin and Trotsky as the authors of Russian revolution, that shaken land will at last work out their salvation, Robert Minor, cartoonist, correspondent and lecturer, spoke to a large audience last night at Bolshoi's hall, 1723 Broadway. Minor, who recently returned from France, Russia and Germany, gave an interesting discourse on "Labor Revolutions in Europe."

Despite the reports which American received relative to Russian chaos, Minor said that the people there were gradually bringing their land into a better and more orderly state than it had known for some time. The bourgeois, or educated middle class people, were compelled to hide their pride, according to Minor, and go to the work. Otherwise they suffered pangs of hunger or near-hunger.

It is the man who works with his hands, explained Minor, who is winning a true living in the northern

"NOPE, MY CAR,"
SAYS YOUTH IN STOLEN AUTO

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—If it is Robert Minor and his Walker, often go riding together in Robert's car. Walker saw Robert's machine going down the street and hopped in. When he turned around he saw George Drake, 19, at the wheel.

"Hello, new chauffeur?" he asked.

"Nope, my car," replied Drake. "You're another," declared Walker and called the police.

Bogart, in the meantime, had reported his automobile as stolen. Drake is in jail, charged with theft.

land today. Such men receive the most food for their labor—the idle bourgeois getting much less than the men of that class go to work in factory offices.

Minor told of seeing laborers on pay day, leaving their factories, arms loaded with supplies, which were issued them instead of currency. Some had such large families that they were compelled to take the groceries, flour and bread home in wheelbarrows. The issue of food is made according to the size of workmen's families.

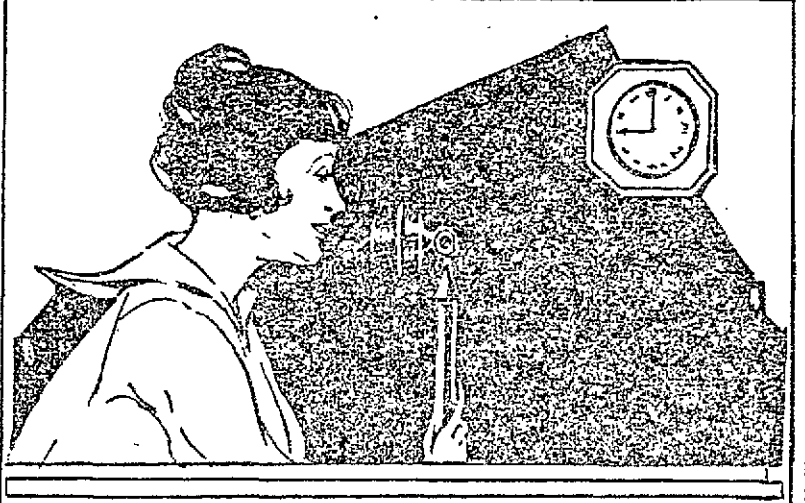

Honest Advertising

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher honestly advertised, honestly placed before the public, and from which he honestly expects to receive his reward.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Wm. L. Fletcher.

OAKLAND TAXES
DECLARED LOW

That the tax rate of Oakland is not higher than that of any other city in the United States was shown by facts and figures produced by County Assessor I. H. Clay at a luncheon of realty operators of this city in the Hotel Oakland yesterday.

The assessor said that the taxpayers of Oakland should not pay so much attention to what they term an exorbitant tax rate and more attention to the amount of money they have to pay out. He said that in speaking of the tax rate the property owner is referring to the nominal instead of the net tax rate.

Taking last year as a basis, Assessor Clay said that the nominal tax rate, city and county, was $4, but the net tax rate was only $2. This was explained by the fact that this city is assessed for tax purposes at only 50 per cent of its actual value. Also the speaker said that Oakland has no concealed values, such as many other cities have, a greater area than San Francisco, but a less property valuation.

The speaker said that he had received great assistance in his work from the Downtown Association, comprising property owners in the area from Twelfth street south and from Lake Merritt to Market street, who meet and decide on what they consider a fair value for their property. The assessor said that the more owners of these values and makes such changes as he deems necessary, but has found that the assistance thus afforded of much value.

Arrangements have been made according to the speaker, for meetings with property owners in different towns of the county to get suggestions from different owners as to what they value their holdings at. The speaker said that there are two ways to reduce taxes—increased assessments and reduction of expenditures.

Rocheester, N. Y., Omaha, Neb., Worcester, Mass., Portland, Ore., Seattle, Wash., New Orleans, La., Boston, New York, Baltimore and other cities were shown to have a higher tax rate than Oakland. Property valuations in these cities for assessment purposes range all the way from 20 per cent in Omaha to 100 per cent in New York, Boston and Baltimore.

'WE'RE WAITING.'
WORD TO SAILORS

BERKELEY, Aug. 28.—Ten thousand copies of the "Berkeley Typophan," a paper published in honor of the men of the fleet, were today delivered on board (Cable) San Francisco anchored in Monterey bay preparatory to their journey to San Francisco bay.

"Follow us we are waiting for you," reads the welcome of the city as voiced in the paper. "The whole city is in readiness to hand you a royal welcome. The key to the city is yours and we want you to come and know that the best is not too good for you."

"With sports, lunches and dancing with some of the finest girls in the world for partners, we know that you will have the time of your young lives."

Published under the direction of Burleigh Davidson, in charge of the publicity for the fleet reception in Berkeley, the paper extends a "jazzy" welcome to the jockies in the form of cleverly worded rhyme, attractive cartoons and other features. Co-operating in the publishing of the paper was the Oakland TRIBUNE and other newspapers about the bay.

Following is the attractive program planned by Berkeley as set forth for the officers of the fleet to whom the snappy little sheet was delivered today:

1:30-2:00—Tug of war; teams consisting of fifty men each; sailors of the Pacific fleet and students of the University of California.

2:00-2:15—100-yard championship of the Pacific fleet. All sailors of the Pacific fleet will be eligible. A wrist watch, automatic pens and ring will be given to the three winners, respectively, in the order of their merit.

2:15-2:30—Jousting exhibitions. Sailors and students.

2:30-3:00—Baseball game. Sailors of the Pacific fleet vs. ex-military students of the University of California. In case the fleet team wins the baseball game boxes of cigars will be given to each member of the team.

3:00-4:30—Vaudeville show and lunch. Served in the Greek Theater, with beautiful Berkeley ladies to wait upon you.

6:00-8:00—Moving pictures in the Greek Theater.

8:00-10:00—Athletic carnival. Harmon gymnasium on the campus. Boxing, wrestling, basketball, etc. Students at four weights—125, 145, 165 and unlimited. Three points overweight allowed. Men to wear in ring-size. Points to consist of three two-minute rounds, or day boxing in two of our fine halls with beautiful Berkeley girls for partners.

Father Moore Head
of Catholic College

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—In an appointment made last Friday by the trustees of St. Ignace college, Father Plus Moore became the president of the institution to succeed the Rev. Patrick Foot, who has been connected with the department of mathematics.

The new president is a thorough scholar of the Japanese language and customs, holding the distinction of having brought the first Japanese man to this country. They have formed various missions in California for the purpose of educating the Japanese children to American ways and customs. Father Moore himself for the last eight years has been engaged in Americanization work among the Japanese here. He maintained a mission at 715 Octavia street.

Want More Pay for
Garbage Collection

That the scale for garbage collection is the subject of contention of Oakland's garbage men, who have applied to the city council for a raise in rates. The complaint is made through the scavengers' association. The association is under a month-old contract to remove garbage at $1000 a month, payable to the city. The garbage men fix charges to the householders prescribed by the city. This scale, they say, has been set at too low a figure. The matter will be heard in council probably next week.

DADDY LONG LEGS
COMING TO PULFUT

The revival Maude Fulton is giving at the Fulton theater of "The Daddy Long Legs" is a production of the year, the largest production in the history of the theater. The production of "Daddy Long Legs" next week is expected to prove a notable event, and already it has attracted large proportions. Maude Fulton is to appear as "Judy," the part in which Ruth Chatterton created such a furore when Henry Miller portrayed the role of "Daddy Long Legs" was the restless, discontented, overworked inmate of an orphan asylum who finally receives a college education, becomes a director whose identity is for a long time a secret to his but to whom she is required to write letters from college. Maude Fulton should be at her best. Paul Harvey will play the part of the boy who is the son of the orphan.

It is announced that arrangements have been made with Henry Miller for the production of "Everywoman" at the Fulton in the near future.

RAILROAD PLAN
HITS AT STRIKE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Railroad reorganization under a plan combining "the most desirable factors" of both government and private ownership and operation was offered yesterday as solution of the railroad problem by Judge George W. Anderson of the United States District Court, Boston. He appeared before the House Interstate Commerce Committee.

Formation of a Federal railroad company, with broad powers including eminent domain to take over existing transportation facilities, so as to provide "a simple national highway and carrier system," was advocated by Judge Anderson.

Labor by the proposals of the witness would have a near status and responsibility, including profit-sharing, but strikes would be illegal. Along with capital and the public labor would have equal representation on the board of directors selected to manage the roads.

Supt. Wood Reveals

Offer from Detroit

Superintendent of Schools J. C. Wood, formerly city superintendent of schools in Alameda, told a convention of county school superintendents at Yosemite, from which Superintendent George W. Frick returned today, that he had declined an offer from Detroit to take charge of education in that city at a salary approximately double his salary as state superintendent, deeming it to be his duty to fulfill the duties of the office to which he was elected.

Superintendent Frick says the convention was conducted on most democratic lines. A roll call of the membership was had and each superintendent was asked to give a talk on the subjects nearest to his heart in connection with his local administration.

West Oakland Home

Directors to Meet

A meeting of the directors of the West Oakland Home is called for next Wednesday. The vacation is voted the most successful ever enjoyed by the wards of the board of managers.

FEAR INFLUENZA;

LISTING NURSES

All available nurses, professional and practical, are being listed by the health department and information as to obtaining supplies and medicines is being assembled, lest the coming winter see a recurrence of influenza. The data is being assembled by Dr. Daniel Crosby, health officer, and Dr. E. F. Jones, city bacteriologist. Dr. Jones says that there has been an opinion advanced by some physicians that while no epidemic such as last year's is expected, there may be sporadic recurrences of influenza cases which will require quick and efficient handling to prevent a possible spread of the disease. The health department, he says, armed with its experience of last year, is to be amply equipped to handle such a situation. Physicians have been notified of the plans of the health department and asked to cooperate in the work. The influenza situation in all its aspects is to be made a special object of study in connection with the meeting of public health officials to be held at Riverside, October 20 to 24, under the auspices of the State Board of Health and in conjunction with the annual meeting of the California League of Municipalities. Dr. Crosby will be sent as Oakland's representative. The convention will also discuss hygiene, the right of association, the draft, the physical efficiency of the average young man. Various sanitation methods and other public health problems will also be discussed at the session.

Y. M. C. A. MAN TO

DEPICT WARFARE

Tables of life at the battle front as applied to entertainers will be related at the Auditorium this evening by Robert Robertson, who spent more than a year overseas as a Y. M. C. A. entertainer. Arrangements have been made by the Merchants' Exchange and the Rotary Club for an entertainment at which Robertson will assume the principal role.

Many songs and stunts that brought cheer to the American troops in Europe will be presented by Robertson this evening. The Victory Chorus of the girls' division of the War Camp Community Service, consisting of 200 voices under the leadership of Roy D. McCarthy, will render two or more selections. McCarthy is to sing a bass solo and there will be other entertainment features.

Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham will appear as a vocalist in the feature number on a program to be given at the Hotel Grand Pacific. The Presidio this evening for the entertainment of the men at Letterman General Hospital. It will be somewhat in the nature of a debut for the judge. On the same program to which Dr. Crosby will be sent as Oakland's representative. The convention will also discuss hygiene, the right of association, the draft, the physical efficiency of the average young man. Various sanitation methods and other public health problems will also be discussed at the session.

Department Store

For "Fleet Week" Festivities-- Daytime Frocks and Evening Gowns of Exquisite Charm and Daintiness

—The newly arrived dresses for daytime wear, though a slight change is noted in the silhouette of the Fall styles, suggested by draped effects at the hips, strictly speaking there is no radical departure from the charming lines of the familiar American model.

—Simplicity in design is contrasted by a perfect riot of richness in embroidered, braided and button novelties in trimming, while a slight departure to French ideas is seen in the lines of the returning coat dress. But as will be noted in the scores of models we show, endless variety of design most becomingly overtakes the unity of figure line in the new dress fashions for Autumn.

Daytime Frocks
from $19.50 to $98
and up

—A notable display of charming new creations awaits you in the choosing of an evening gown or party frock should you come here to buy. We are confident that these we show will please you and your admirers.

EDITORIAL

If anyone connected with Bowman's was to be asked to name our ten most satisfactory specialties, Linwood Floe Water Bottles would appear well up at the head of the list.

There is nothing handed over our counters with more certainty of making friends for the store than these splendid Linwood Floe Water Bottles.

They last as long as other bags for the money have ever lasted, as far as we know.

Those who possess them soon forget that hot water bags ever give trouble.

Nurses purchase them regularly, and no one uses hot water bags more constantly.

The two-quart size sells for $1.50, and we assure you that it will be one of the most satisfactory purchases, as far as hot water bags are concerned, that you ever obtained for the money.

DO YOU LIKE THE ODOR OF VIOLETS

Upon every dressing table there should be a can of Vergo Violet Talcum Powder and a bottle of Vergo Violet Toilet Water.

These splendid products are both put out in our own laboratories, and each is just as fine as it is possible to make it. We have succeeded in getting a true violet odor, and those who have used either of these products are most enthusiastic.

The talcum powder sells for 25c a can and the toilet water sells for 75c and $1.10.

A GOOD LAXATIVE FOR A BAD LIVER

Hepatic Water is a new laxative, especially put up for our trade.

This medicinal water is recommended by the Bowman Drug Company for constipation and intestinal disorders, rheumatism, gout, etc.

Hepatic Water is a splendid regulator for the liver and will be found to be very helpful to people

DO YOU NEED A NEW BATH CAP?

Remember, We Have Two Warm Months Ahead of Us.

The records of the weather man show that we will probably have two and possibly three months of warm weather ahead of us. This means that the bathing resorts will be busy and that there will be quite a sale for bath caps.

With this idea in view, and in order to make a substantial saving in wholesale costs, we recently purchased quite a shipment of bath caps.

These bath caps come in the usual variety of shapes and colors, and will sell at prices ranging from 25c to 85c a piece.

We have always made quite a specialty of bath caps, and you will find a good assortment here as anywhere.

who are unable to get the necessary exercise in order to keep themselves well. Try half a dozen pints, and if you are not pleased with it, we will refund your money to you. Price 25c a pint.

DO YOU EVER HAVE BACKACHE?

Did you ever get a cold in the back?

Or a strain?

Or any kind of an ache or pain that warmth will relieve?

If so, you'll be interested in our 65c porous plaster—the best porous plaster money can buy, as far as we know.

These plasters are made to order for our special purposes. Many of our customers are willing to pay 65c instead of 25c for something extra good, so we have these made for this purpose.

You don't know how good a GOOD porous plaster is until you've invested 65c in one of these.

SEE THE FLEET THROUGH COLORED GLASSES

When the Fleet comes in, do not forget to wear with you a pair of Automobile Goggles in order to diffuse the reflection of the sun upon the bay.

Those who see the Fleet to best advantage will be those who protect their eyes against the glare of the water.

We have an unusually good assortment of these goggles at prices ranging from 50c up.

You had better get yours now, so that you will run no risk of being without them on the day that the Fleet arrives.

Writing Paper 35c

We have a few boxes of Eaton, Crane & Pike Company's Linen Finish Writing Paper and Correspondence Cards.

This stationery comes in lined or plain, in boxes of 24 sheets, or 24 cards with envelopes to match. While it lasts, splendid value, 35c a box.

Alkali in Soap Bad for the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply pour the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

Notice to Commuters

Owing to the large number of passengers that will be required to move to San Francisco on September 1st, due to the arrival of the Pacific Fleet, monthly commutation tickets will not be offered for sale on the trains at that date.

A special detail of trunks will also be placed on the trains to sell books on Saturday, August 30th, and Sunday, August 31st.

In order to avoid inconvenience and delay commuters are requested to purchase their September tickets in advance of September 1st.

Cures Piles

I was suffering from piles for four or five years and in February, 1919, I submitted to an operation which was not successful, and I have been bothered with them from that time and at last became so bad that I could hardly walk.

I went to Dr. Sing about three weeks ago and took treatments and I now believe I am positively cured.

I can heartily recommend Dr. Sing to anyone suffering from piles.

—C. C. McGuire, 2205 Willow street, Oakland.

Female Trouble Cured

As a result of the cure effected in Mr. McGuire's case the Sing Herb Specialists secured another patient with the following result:

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this for the benefit of others who are suffering from the same trouble as myself.

I have had bladder and female trouble for over a year and could get no relief. I have doctored with several doctors and have been in the hospital at different times, but I could get no help.

I finally heard of Dr. Sing through a patient of his who had been cured of piles by Dr. Sing. I went to see him and after taking five weeks of treatments I am greatly cured and continuing the treatments.

—Mrs. N. M. Snell, 2205 Willow street, Oakland.

Impartial supervision of trusts, both living and under will

A trust under will held by an individual is liable to warped judgment because of sympathy entertained for some one named in the will or because of outside drains upon the individual's energy and thought.

The Trust Department is an organization of men, holding trusts under will or living trusts. The judgment of the officers is founded alone upon what is best or what is the expressed desire of the benefactor.

The Trust Department operates independently of control of any single interest and especially at critical periods this service is of inestimable value.

From the BLACK TENTS

by ACTED ABDULLAH

Author of "Scented Fear" and "Wrapped in Clay."

A sob rose in his throat; but he conquered it, braced himself and walked down the length of the porch. Instinctively, passing the dining room that opened on the veranda with tall French windows, he looked in. The party was still there, drinking and talking and laughing in a hectic, feverish, unhealthy endeavor after gaiety and genial ease.

For quite a while he stared. Then, through the window, he felt Madame Guescelin's eyes resting on him, with an expression of subtle, elusive triumph and saw her raise her black eyebrows questioningly.

He shook his head, as if in answer and walked away. Again, he sat down, lit a cigarette, and put his hand in his breast pocket. It encountered a bit of crinkling, pungently scented paper, a letter beginning with the words, "Best beloved, and winding up, not with 'Marie Parnies,' but, 'Eloise Guescelin.'"

He tore the letter into a dozen pieces and watched them flutter away on the wings of the soft night breeze.

Three times, since as a small child he had been taken to America, had Moorish Hewitt visited his mother's land, his native land, Morocco, obeying each time a sudden impulse that was infinitely delicate yet utterly stupendous and coercing; after each visit, a sobering, rather hasty reaction.

Three times! And always the same emotion, the same reaction!

First, the insistent, hidden call which caused him to take train and steamer in a mad hurry to see the flat roofs and peaked domes of Fez; then the prompt bitter disillusion.

On each of the three occasions, he had seen his grandfather, Sharaf Ula ad-Din, who would stare at him and say, as if it were a lesson learned by rote:

"You will come back to the Black Tents, to your own people, the Bait al-Shahab?"

"No, I am an American. My home is in America."

Your home is here. These are your people. And you will come back to us. You will mate with a cousin—blood of your own blood and bone of your bone!"

And the Sharaf would add, indignantly:

"We are the Bait al-Shahab. We know poison, as nobody knows it in all the world. Poison not only of the body, but also of the soul. It works for evil—and, too, for good. You will come back to your own people, little grandson!"

The last time John Hewitt had heard these words, had been a little over four years earlier, and then he had made up his mind that it would be his last visit. He had told his grandfather so, and the latter had smiled, a strangely mocking, strangely elusive smile, but had not replied.

John Hewitt had stuck to his resolution. When the insistent call came to him—the call to take train and steamer and hasten to the flat roofs of Fez—he would fight it down deliberately, and busy himself in his splendidly appointed laboratory, until the desire had ebbed away.

A strong man, he finally succeeded in never thinking of his mother's land and people, but he could not help their pictures recurring to him often in his dreams; and chiefly after he had given way to a violent gust of temper—as he had to do, at the Country club.

He knew that the dream would come, was afraid of it, and he worked for hours over his vials and tubes and glass retorts at a new poison with which he was experimenting, until he was absolutely worn out with fatigue.

Yet, finally he went to bed and fell asleep, there was the same dream, showing him through the desert from its shimmering desert frame like a monochrome of white on dazzling white, dissolving on approach into a confused mass of uneven, flat, jagged, splintered and broken by sudden pains and, occasionally, an arrogant koubah or minaret, blue beneath the intense, blue moon.

He knew the rose and amber African koubah of Fez, again at night, crouching, silent, sinister!

Fez—and out, beyond the low dip of the sky line, the black felt tents of the mother's tribe, the women moving from the camp fire to the well, blue-robed, water jugs balanced on their heads, the moon, bearded, hawk-faced, stately, the camels loping up grotesquely, the horses pulling at their heel ropes.

How it called to him, called to him through the night, through the distance, the years, with voices soft, muffled, mysterious—voices that would not be gainsaid!

"You will come back to your own people!" he heard his grandfather say, in his dream—knowing that she's mother's tribe, the women moving from the camp fire to the well, blue-robed, water jugs balanced on their heads, the moon, bearded, hawk-faced, stately, the camels loping up grotesquely, the horses pulling at their heel ropes.

How it called to him, called to him through the night, through the distance, the years, with voices soft, muffled, mysterious—voices that would not be gainsaid!

TRIBUNE'S DAILY ALMANAC

AUGUST TWENTY-EIGHT
Lots of stuff for our customers today. Discoveries—Menendez arrived at St. Augustine, Fla. 1595. First time on any stage. Henry Hudson entered Delaware bay, this date, 1609. Born—1728, John Stark, a soldier who defeated the British general, Burgoyne, at Bennington, Vt.; Ira D. Sankey, 1840, evangelist, author, psalm writer. Beginning the month of Dulheggia in the Mohammedan calendar. The fuller that writes the Almanac on the Constantinople Scimitar calls it Dulheggia the first. If you like Dulheggia the first better than August the twenty-two you're welcome to it.

MARK ANTHONY MIGHT HELP OUT, TOO.
MERILL DEMANDS PERSONAL LIBERTY OF ANCIENT ROMAN. It is the enlightenment forthcoming from a recent headline. If the gentleman can make Julius Caesar give his old town a lot of things we haven't got, he'll probably please Caius Cassius, Brutus and company.

CORSET WAS.
Corset makers won their strike in Bridgeport, Conn., recently. It was a clash from the start.

EDITOR TRIBUNE.—My father owns a piece of property located at San Lorenzo. About three years ago a well, about sixty feet deep, was bored, and a windmill erected. Quantities of water have been pumped but the water is salty and not fit for drinking, cooking, or irrigation. Is there a process for clarifying this salt water? Could an expert on water determine whether or not drinking water could be obtained from the well if it were bored to a greater depth?—B. L.

There are several processes for clarifying salt water, but they are expensive. Filtering in a case like this, would not do it, as what you are probably pumping is bay seepage. A water expert would tell you that if you bored into the next strata you would probably find water good enough to drink; there is no certain test for this, however, and you would be taking a chance by boring. Still, boring would be cheaper than distilling salt water. The seepage of bay water is probably caused by powerful water company pumps drawing away fresh water, salt water seepage replacing it. There has been some complaint regarding this. Unless you desire to "take a chance" and bore deeper it would perhaps be best to "forget" your well.

EDITOR TRIBUNE.—My son joined the army under an assumed name; has been known by such ever since. Last month he married under said name. Does the fact of his marrying under an assumed name in any way affect his marriage? He declares his intention of keeping the assumed name; would it be necessary to go to court to change it?—MRS. A. H.

Your son's marriage is perfectly legal and would stand, except that the wife might, by claiming she did not know he was wearing an assumed name, claim that she was married under false pretenses. However, it is doubtful if an assumption could be obtained even on such a showing. There is no practical need of a legal changing of name in court except to clear property interests.

REVELATIONS of a WIFE

"Oh, I'm so excited!" twittered Mrs. Durkee. "What do you think, Madge? I've rented my house!"
"You can't expect me to be glad of that," I returned, smiling at the little woman's manner. "Whatever am I going to do when you're gone?"
We were seated in my neighbor's pleasant, sunny, living room, an immense room running the whole length of one side of the house. At the rear some French windows opened out to a long, arched arbor of old lilac bushes, just now in full bloom.

My words were not at all idle ones. I felt decidedly gloomy at the thought of Mrs. Durkee moving away. She has a soothing charm for tired and frayed nerves that few women possess. I have grown to have a very real affection for her, and often when things are depressing at home I steal over to her home for a few minutes' chat with her.

Not even the departure of Alfred, her idolized son, for Plattsburg had altered the outward placidity of the little woman. I strongly suspected, nay, I knew, that she had her hours of Gethsemane and Golgotha solely save for a certain faint heaviness and redness of her eyes there was never any outward trace of them.

"Whatever would I do with this house if I stayed?" she retorted smiling. "But I know you'll miss me, although you can't help loving me as I shall without you. But I'm glad you will!" she dimpled. "It wouldn't be a very good recommendation for me if we had been neighbors and close friends so long and you didn't miss me!" she said now.

I laughed at my little friend's whimsicality.

"It's that all you need for a recommendation it will be a good one," I assured her. "But, tell me, who are to be my new neighbors? I'm sure I shall dislike them, because I can't bear to think of some strange woman using your things and sitting here."

"You won't have to think of it," she returned gaily. "I don't believe there will be a woman around the place, not even a servant. It's to be a bachelor establishment, my dear."

ON BEAUTY

There are many arguments advanced against the use of soap in cleansing the face. Soap may not agree with a few exceptionally delicate skins, but for the average complexion soap and warm water will be found the best cleanser.

Of course, caustic and irritating soaps are injurious, and no woman who has any regard for her complexion uses such soaps on face.

Climatic conditions naturally have great effect on your complexion. According to the state of the atmosphere your skin may be dry, rough, moist, smooth. When it is irritated in any way from exposure to wind, dirt or sea air, it is best to use an almond or pistachio powder until it assumes its normal condition.

A delightful powder which is very cleansing and that whitens and softens the skin is prepared from:
Sweet almonds (blanched)..... ounces
Dried beans.....18 ounces
Orris root.....8 ounces
White castile soap.....6 ounces
Spermaceti.....1½ ounces
Carbonate of soda.....1½ ounces
Oil of bergamot.....6 drams
Oil of lavender.....6 drams
Oil of lemon.....6 drams
Grind or beat all the dry ingredients to a fine powder. Mix thoroughly, then beat in the oils so they are evenly absorbed. Keep in closed jars, excluding light and air.

French beauties set great store on the bleaching and exfoliant properties of pistachio meal. A cleansing bath powder which is made with a pistachio base contains these ingredients:
Pistachio nuts.....2 pounds
Orris root (powdered).....2 pounds
Oil of lemon.....4 drams
Oil of orange peel.....4 drams
Oil of neroli.....1½ drams
Blanch the nuts by pouring boiling water over them as when blanching almonds. Let them cool and dry, then grind them to a fine meal. Mix well with the orris root and stir in the oil.

Keep this preparation securely shut from light and air as the volatile oils evaporate quickly.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS FOR HUSBANDS.
The fuel problem is really critical in thousands of households. Here's how you can make yourself independent this winter. At your favorite lunch counter gather in as many toothpicks as possible every time you eat. In several months' time you'll be surprised to find that the winter's kindling is stored away. As for coal—go out and find the carbon dealer whose names. He'll throw lumps of fuel at you. Catch them if possible and run. If necessary, brave the man's wrath—but don't go home without the coal.

If you get this far—Good night.

Lovers of the work of Jack London—and they are legion—have something to look forward to in the appearance, beginning next Sunday, of "Hearts of Three."

When the master of virile American literature—of the art of transporting his readers into the far, wide dramatic scenes with him—died untimely in the prime of his life and of his writing, he left behind this splendid unpublished novel.

Now The TRIBUNE is to present "Hearts of Three" for the FIRST TIME. It has NEVER BEFORE been printed in book or magazine.

Perhaps you are one of the thousands of Jack London readers whose enthusiasm has led them to read everything this great author produced.

"I've read everything London ever wrote," is a remark frequently heard.

But you haven't read "Hearts of Three." And your first chance to read it will be in The TRIBUNE beginning next Sunday.

"Hearts of Three" is a typical London story. To the delight of an unique and highly dramatic plot it adds the charm of scenes set in the mystic fastnesses of an almost primeval land, where savage traditions and superstitions ages old, still hold sway.

Its hero is an adventurous American seeking pirate gold buried centuries ago; its heroine the most unusual and interesting and REAL woman ever portrayed in a work of fiction.

What do you think of that? And such distinguished looking men!"

She put her head to one side and eyed the sock she was knitting with a tantalizing air. I smiled to myself, for I knew my little friend's weakness for making a mystery out of her bits of news, knew that she would be disappointed if I didn't quiz her concerning her tenants.

"How very thrilling!" I exclaimed, and was rewarded by the gratified little smile that played around her pretty, childlike mouth. "Tell me all about it this minute!"

"Well," she drew a long breath and laid her knitting in her lap, a sure sign that her subject was an absorbing one to her; "you know I made up my mind the minute Alf told me he was going to Plattsburg that I would try to rent the house furnished. I'm going to follow Alf around just as long as I can, and the minute I get the house off my hands I'm going straight to Plattsburg. Of course, I put an advertisement in the New York papers, and, curiously enough, the same Sunday I had mine in, I found this advertisement in every New York paper."

She fumbled in her knitting bag in which squirrel-like, she kept all sorts of odds and ends beside her knitting, drew out an advertisement clipped from a paper, and handed it to me. There was nothing unusual in the phrasing of it.

Wanted—By two gentlemen, one an elderly invalid, with one servant, furnished house with grounds in quiet country or suburban neighborhood, within 25-mile radius of New York, Long Island preferred. Address, X. Y. Z. N. Y. Sentinel.

I read it through, and couldn't account for the queer, tingling feeling of excitement that crept over me. It was as if something warned me that this innocuous piece of paper held something of vital interest to me.

"Did you ever know of anything so pat?" demanded little Mrs. Durkee. "It seems as if they were describing this place, doesn't it? You can imagine I lost no time in answering the advertisement. And what kind of an answer do you think I received?"

She paused dramatically.

"I haven't the slightest idea," I returned, humoring her.

"Of course, you went," I smiled. "Of course, you went," she returned. "And found the handsomest man, a foreign, Spanish-looking chap with mustaches and a pointed beard. Of course I had never seen him before, but something about him—it must have been his eyes—gave me the creepiest feeling, as if he and I had known each other and talked to each other before."

SUES HUSBAND AS WELL AS WOMAN

Following her suit for $10,000 damages against Mrs. Elsie L. Bush, stenographer at the Moore Shipyard, in which she alleged alienation of the affections of her husband, Mrs. Myrtle McAdams today sued her husband, Elmer McAdams, an inspector at the same shipyard, for divorce. The alienation of affection suit was filed last week.

Mrs. McAdams charges that her husband and the other woman became acquainted while working at the shipyard building ships for Uncle Sam and that they began going around together. She charges that she found them together at an Oakland hotel. After a time, she says, McAdams deserted her.

Attorney L. R. Weinmann, for the husband, raised a question before Judge E. J. Brown yesterday afternoon as to whether the marriage of the McAdams was ever legally consummated. He said that McAdams was only 21 and the girl 18 when they were married and that they never had the consent of their parents. The ceremony was performed by a justice of the peace in

TICKETS SOLD IN CHICAGO FOR FLIGHT TO N. Y.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Passengers were being booked here today for the first passenger carrying airplane flight from Chicago to New York, in what the promoters say is the largest airplane in the United States.

The plane, which has accommodations for twenty-six passengers, will leave for New York within the next day or so. The huge aircraft was constructed in Milwaukee at an approximate cost of $150,000. It has a wing spread of 95 feet and is equipped with four Liberty motors of 400 horsepower each.

According to present plans the plane will be placed in regular passenger service between New York and San Francisco.

ARREST MENACES SOFT-DRINK MEN

"Soft Drink" cafes, which have continued to operate since their licenses were revoked by the city council during the vice hearings a few months ago, will probably be liable to prosecution for selling malt liquor without a license, under the new construction of the police in the matter of near beer sales. The places have sold near beer together with soft drinks. According to City Attorney H. L. Hagin near beer, a malt liquor, comes under the Hart ordinance as a liquor.

"The Hart ordinance does not say whether the liquor is to be intoxicating or not; it simply says malt, spirituous or vinous liquor," said Hagin. "This places cafes selling near beer directly under the liquor law. Their liquor licenses have been revoked. The result is that any of them may be proceeded against."

Chief of Police J. F. Lynch is preparing a report of all places where beer or near beer is being sold for investigation by Commissioner F. P. Moras.

In the meantime Hagin is preparing the "soft drink ordinance" to govern cafes, and, he says, it may be that a cafe selling soft drinks and also near beer will be compelled to apply for two licenses covering each drink sold. The new soft drink cafe license will also provide for a "public chaperone" and other regulation of the places in question.

"The new near beer development," said Hagin, "gives the city council another hold on any of the soft drink places deemed undesirable. Many places, when their liquor licenses were revoked for cause, continued as soft drink places, out of the pale of the council's jurisdiction. They proceeded to sell near beer, however, and this now puts them in the council's power once more."

Chief Lynch says he will render a report on how the various places affected are operated.

Europe's Trade Problems Surveyed State Manufacturers Get Report

An interesting and accurate report of trade conditions in Europe has just been received by the California Manufacturers' Association from a manufacturer who was afforded exceptional opportunities for obtaining authentic information regarding the industrial and economic situation in each of the countries visited.

President J. R. Miller of the Association regards this survey as one of great importance to the industries of the State, who are planning for exportation. The report in condensed form states:

DEMAND IS GREAT.

"After making a careful analysis of the markets of France, Spain, Switzerland, Italy and Belgium for such products as are manufactured in the State of California, I am thoroughly convinced that the international demand for our goods was never so great as at present. To be sure, the emergency requirements for machine tools and heavy hardware are being met from the surplus supplies held by the American government. France, however, I am confident, after many conferences with representative commercial interests and government officials in the above countries, that it will be several years before the present demand for re-equipment can be supplied."

"BELGIUM—I am reliably informed that all Belgium is in great need of small tools and utensils of all sorts, especially those things used by householders. The only one factory has been producing these articles, and as the Germans took

Blast furnaces	210,000 "	4,000	1.9
Iron steel (finished)	154,821 "	7,351	4.7
Steel products	127,073 "	8,431	2.7

"The above figures do not include the glass industry, which is ahead of all others in resumption of production."

"From a financial point of view Belgium is in a very strong position. The indemnities from Germany and the cancellation of war debts to the Allies will make her credit strong. Already there is a commercial credit of one hundred million dollars for Belgium in the United States. This is the great field today for the California manufacturers."

"FRANCE—The demand for machine tools, structural steel of all types, heavy hardware and general machinery is without limit in France. All of their coal mining machinery in the Lens district was destroyed by the Germans. Much textile machinery in the Lille and Roubaix districts has been either destroyed or stolen, and in many other manufacturing centers the French must purchase hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of machinery for re-equipment of their factories."

RESTRICTIONS CRITICIZED.

"At the present time the import restrictions are rather unsatisfactory in France, but many of these restrictions are being removed or modified. The French credit situation is rather more difficult than the Belgian, but many of the large international banking institutions in New York and Boston are establishing branches in France to facilitate the financing of sales of American manufactures."

"SPAIN—This country is having a real industrial boom, and because of her more or less neutral position during the war is in a very favorable situation for international commerce. During and after hostilities our own government had some very large and important transactions with Spain. The Spanish field is most attractive and I urge that California manufacturers get in touch with the American Commercial Attaché, the American Embassy, Madrid, Spain. The Department of Commerce at Washington, through the Bureau of Foreign ing and shoes to this Government on three-year credits, but because it is a new republic with no firmly established credits I do not see opportunity for any particular trade in finished products at this time. This country has practically all the textile machinery."

POLAND UNCERTAIN.

"POLAND—It is agreed by American experts in Paris that American manufacturers should immediately investigate the markets of Poland. The peculiar political conditions surrounding this country, make it desirable that firm credits be assured before commerce is indulged in."

MACHINERY WANTED.

"While I can give no exact figures the demand here for large machinery is enormous. My conclusion is based on data from the Service of Restitution, which is engaged in bringing back from Germany stolen machines. For the fifteen days between June 1 and June 16, there were 22,516 demands from industrial concerns for the return of material and machines removed by Germans. The Service of Restitution identified 1600 machines and returned 955. From these figures it is evident that the Belgian manufacturers will not receive back their machines much quicker than new machines could be delivered from an outside market. My point is strengthened by the statement of an official of the service that it was very difficult to get descriptions of stolen property because many of the wealthier concerns preferred to buy new machinery, despite the triple cost as compared with pre-war values."

"Belgian industry will not be re-established until the machinery problem is solved through the return or purchase and installation of pre-war equipment."

"How the various industries are now carrying on may be imagined from the following data on monthly production in May, 1918, and May, 1919:

	1918	May 1919	Percent
Coal	1,500,000 tons	1,100,000	60.
Coke	125,000 "	80,000	28.8
Cement	75,000 "	7,000	9.
Blast furnaces	210,000 "	4,000	1.9
Iron steel (finished)	154,821 "	7,351	4.7

and Domestic Commerce, can be of material assistance in this respect."

"ITALY—Because of the serious financial situation in Italy I do not urge that any immediate steps be taken to develop an export market in this country for anything but raw materials. Our government is assisting Italy financially, but her social and industrial conditions are most chaotic at the moment, while the political situation is unsettled. Unless manufacturers are prepared to give long credits, I suggest that little encouragement be given to promotion of business with Italy at this time."

"SWITZERLAND—I am not prepared to make any suggestion with reference to trade with Switzerland, except to call attention to the large demand here for builders' hardware and small tools."

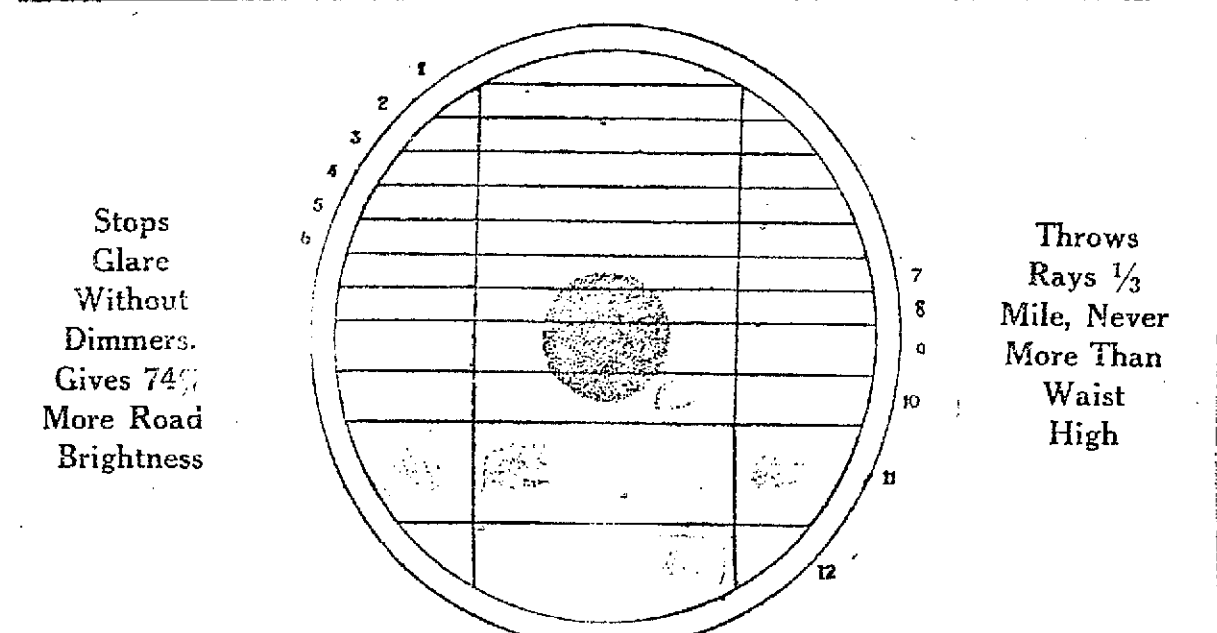

"CZECHOSLOVAKIA—The United States Government is furnishing very large quantities of re-claimed cloth-

THE NEW OSGOOD LENS
CRAVATH LONG DISTANCE TYPE
Breaks all Sales Records on the Coast.
Heavy Demand for Osgood Lenses Continues

FROM the hour that the Osgood Lens passed examination of California's State Motor Vehicle Department with flying colors we have been kept busy night and day to fill our orders.

California motorists are conforming with the new law against glare and they are apparently unanimous for the one lens that meets the situation and solves the problem.

The Osgood Lens does a lot more than merely stop the glare; it gives you a brighter, clearer light and more of it right where you want it out onto the road ahead of you and forward and downward, instead of shooting wasted rays up into the air and straight into the faces of people coming towards you.

The Osgood Lens throws a powerful light one-third mile ahead of the machine and never more than waist high. You don't need dimmers with the Osgood Lens. Instead, you get 74% more road brightness. Back of this tremendous demand for Osgood Lenses stands an absolutely scientific principle endorsed by the foremost authorities on illumination. It is the one lens that gives you perfect control and focus and conforms in every respect to the anti-glare law of the State.

The Osgood Lens makes the road just as safe for others as it does for you and solves absolutely the safety problem of night driving.

We ask you to note that these statements are not ours merely; the Osgood Lens carries the O. K. of your own State Motor Vehicle Department and not only obeys the new law but makes it a veritable blessing. No matter what old lenses you may now have on your car you'll never be satisfied and you'll never be right till you get the Osgood.

Tell your dealer that what you want is the Osgood Lens; he has them. Or if he hasn't he'll get them for you in a hurry, and glad to do it. Prices $3.15 to $4.75 according to size.

DEALERS: There's more lens-profit in handling the Osgood, than in all the rest of them put together. Handle the Osgood and you get rid of having to carry all sizes of other lenses. Osgoods outsell them all combined, and the reason is that they do the business; and motorists know it. Complete stocks of all sizes now ready for instant deliveries.

SUGGESTIONS TO PASSENGERS
On San Francisco Fleet Day, September 1st, travel from East Bay points to San Francisco will be very heavy.
In order of the Government ferry boat service must be discontinued during the passage of the fleet between 11:00 a. m. and 1:00 p. m.
In order to accommodate our patrons desiring to view the entrance of the Pacific Fleet into San Francisco Bay, this Company will operate extra trains and boats to San Francisco on September 1st beginning at 6 o'clock in the morning.
We recommend and urge our patrons to take early trains for San Francisco and avoid the rush.

Oakland Invests Itself in Gala Garb in Honor of Approaching Sailor Guests

BIG FORTS TO BE OPENED TO PUBLIC SEPT. 1

Everyone to Have Chance to See Guns Which Protect the Bay Cities; Fleet is Due to Enter Golden Gate Monday

Fort Winfield, Scott, Baker, Barry and Miley, and all the military posts overlooking San Francisco Bay and the Golden Gate, will be thrown open to the public on Monday morning, that the cheering thousands who have assembled to see the historical pageant as the Pacific squadron enters the harbor, may have the best possible view.

Situated on high, steep hills, commanding wide views of ocean and bay, the viewpoints of almost unlimited scope will be afforded. A careful system of traffic will be established at all forts. One-way traffic only will be allowed on practically all roads. Visitors to Fort Winfield Scott must enter at the top of the hill west of the golf links, or at the junction of the Presidio road west of the National cemetery. So far as possible, spectators will be permitted to the top of the batteries. Parking grounds will be provided for motorists. The waterfront of the reservation will accommodate automobiles at Fort Baker. Visitors will be permitted entrance to the hillside. Picnic lunches will be permitted on the reservation, provided care in the disposal of waste is exercised.

ARMADA DUE MONDAY
Admiral Rodman's armada of thirty-six ships will enter the harbor between 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. Monday morning, according to the tentative schedule. All bay traffic will cease from the time the first puff of the flagship appears on the horizon until the last ship is at anchor in battleship row. The railroad company has announced that it will reroute its passenger trains, leaving the Marin shore, following the Marin shore.

Cameras may be used by visitors or photographers of the fleet, according to the orders of the coast defense commander at Fort Winfield Scott, who warns the public that the taking of photographs of fortifications is punishable by heavy fines. The rules, however, are subject to the orders of military police who will result in ejection from the reservation. Visitors are cautioned against carelessness with lighted matches and cigars. Comfort stations will be provided.

SENECA IS WELL PLEASED
Commander Senece, U. S. N., who has spent the past week about the bay, as the personal representative of Admiral Rodman, completing arrangements for the visit of the fleet, left this morning to join the Pacific squadron, enthusiastic over the entire program for fleet week.

Large posters will be displayed on bulletin boards of each ship, announcing the official events which are scheduled in each of the bay cities.

Two former members of Oakland's 1500 bluejackets arrived this morning with the "Flying Y," a recruiting party from the flagship of the sixth division, U. S. S. Wyoming, on a mission to recruit men for the warships now at anchor in Santa Cruz harbor. L. J. Dooley, editor of the "Night Top," C. R. Thomas and H. J. Bennett, lightweight boxers; G. V. Gish, vocalist; L. A. Vales, yeoman, are making an attack on the street corners and theaters with a plea to men to join the Pacific squadron. Men enlisting now will be sent direct to one of the big warships to enter San Francisco bay on Monday, avoiding a long stay at a training station.

The following military organizations have been summoned to meet at the Civic auditorium in San Francisco:

Cattlemen Oppose Packing Regulation
WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Attacks on the Knayon and Kendrick bills for regulation of the packing industry were renewed today before the Senate agriculture committee. R. M. Ammons, former governor of Colorado, headed a delegation of 17 cattlemen from that State in opposition to the legislation.

LAKE MERRITT IS DECORATION CENTER PIECE

Clubhouses and Halls Are Festooned in National Colors; Social Program for Entertainment of Gobs Complete

Oakland began to don its festive dress today in honor of Eastbay Cities Day on Wednesday, when Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, the officers and men of the Pacific Fleet, will be the honored guests at the most brilliant pageant that has ever been staged on this side of the bay. Scores of workmen are placing the framework which will be covered with waving pennants and national emblems. Decorations are at work in clubhouses and halls which will be the center of hospitality to the thousands of tars. Already the Municipal Auditorium is being transformed for the great naval ball which Secretary Daniels and Mrs. Daniels will attend on Wednesday night.

Oakland Chapter, American Red Cross, has bloomed out the seven strategic points where first aid hospitals will be established and maintained by naval reserves and trained nurses. The first aid stations will be located at The Hut, Fourteenth and Broadway; the Auditorium; Fourteenth and Oak streets; the Lakeside Park; Harrison street and Grand avenue; Jorda Park.

The Young Women's Christian Association has announced a series of entertainments in its Webster-street building during the four nights which the fleet is in San Francisco waters. Monday night an informal reception will be held, followed on Tuesday by a popularity party for officers, and on Wednesday night by a group of girls from his own State. Thursday night the party will take the form of a dance.

Lack of uniform will be no bar to participation by eastern veterans in the parade of War Women's Day parade on Tuesday in San Francisco. Uniformed and non-uniformed contingents will march. Practically every eastern unit of veterans will take part in the parade which will be staged to honor women's contribution in the war. All former service men in the city employ will be granted a half holiday on Tuesday by a resolution passed by the city council yesterday.

The Big Sisters have delegated themselves the task of policing the downtown districts and populous centers in Alameda county during the presence of the sailors here, for the protection of the visitors against women of the underworld.

Wanted—Lots of Big, Tasty Cakes For Fleet Jackies

BERKELEY, Aug. 28.—Cakes, great big ones, with lots of icing and nuts and raisins, are wanted to make happy the thousand or more jackies who will be entertained in Berkeley next Wednesday on Eastbay Fleet Day.

Mrs. Orrin Kip McMurray, chairman of the refreshments committee, has issued a call for 200 cakes which she says ought to furnish generous enough pieces for the sailor lads expected to visit the city.

Not only to the more mature housewives of the city does she issue her appeal, but to the girls as well. "Now's your chance to show these patriotic sons of Uncle Sam what good cooks you are," is her appeal to the young women.

Cakes for supper, which will be served next Wednesday evening in the Greek Theater, during a vaudeville program planned for the visiting gobs, may be left at the dressing rooms in the rear of the stage of the theater Wednesday morning. Mrs. McMurray requests that all cakes be delivered to the theater before noon in order that the committee may know exactly how many of the confections they may count on in feeding the hungry jackies.

PERSIAN VINE IS NO GARLIC PLANT SHE PROTESTS

Mrs. Wisewell's potted fern was not garlic.

This is the gist of the report of Captain of Police William H. Wood, who says that an Irish policeman is no judge of garlic.

Mrs. Wisewell lost a plant, taken by a thief from her lawn. It was reported to the Central district. "A garlic plant stolen," Mrs. Wisewell took Captain Woods to task—for it wasn't garlic, but a Persian Spool-vine.

"The officer on the beat," writes Woods in his report on the matter, "is a son of Erin and therefore is not as acquainted with the gentle herb known as garlic as a brother officer of Latin origin usually on the beat would be. Hence his slight error. The vine was not so strong as garlic—but much more valuable."

Anyhow, the police are still looking for the vine.

WILSON OFFER VOTED DOWN
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 27.—The city council yesterday estimated 25,000 organized railroad workers in Ohio will reject by an overwhelming vote President Wilson's offer of four cents an hour in increase, according to reports here today from railroad shops throughout the state.

FORTY NAVAL COMMANDERS FEAST GUESTS

Dinner for Secretary Daniels and Admiral Rodman Will Be Notable Events; Eight States to Send Envoys

The dinner to be given Secretary Daniels by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce next Wednesday evening promises to be the most colorful affair ever held in Oakland.

Besides the secretary and Admiral Rodman, commander of the Pacific fleet, the two principal guests of honor, forty admirals, captains and commanders will be present. It is expected that they will be resplendent in their naval uniforms.

In addition the governors of eight western states, including William D. Stephens of California, or their representatives will attend, together with high national, state, city and county officials.

Mrs. Daniels, as a guest of the women of the Eastbay cities, will have a prominent place at the dinner also. It is expected that more than 200 of the leading society and club women will attend to act as hostesses to the secretary's wife.

The dinner will be held in the Ivory ballroom of the Hotel Oakland. Invitations began going out from the Chamber of Commerce today. The number of plates will necessarily be restricted. Reservations will close next Tuesday evening. Tickets are $5 each.

The principal speech, of course, will be made by Secretary Daniels. He is expected to touch on the naval base situation, particularly in view of the declared necessity for additional facilities now that half of the navy is stationed in the Pacific. Victor H. Metcalf, former secretary of the navy, a close personal friend of Daniels, has been asked to make the welcoming speech. Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College, has been selected to make a short address on behalf of the women.

President H. C. Capwell of the chamber will preside. On behalf of the supporters of the Alameda naval base J. R. Knowland, as chairman of the harbor development committee, has been selected to present the case of the Encinal city. Through the committee a large mass of highly technical data has been gathered and this will be laid before Secretary Daniels, both in written and verbal form.

Reservations for the luncheon to be given Daniels by the fleet committee on the same day as the dinner are coming in rapidly. The Chamber of Commerce has been asked to take charge of the details of this luncheon and the seat chart of this luncheon is open to the public. Only about 500 covers will be laid and tickets are $1.50 each.

Von Hindenburg to Run for President

BY UNITED PRESS
LEARNED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
DRESDEN, Aug. 28.—The National People's party has decided to nominate Marshal von Hindenburg as its candidate in the next presidential election, it was reported authoritatively today.

The Civic Auditorium is a wood-lined hall awaiting the Victory ball, which will be the complement which San Francisco will offer Secretary Daniels. Admiral Rodman and the 800 officers attached to the armada. The official box will be occupied by Secretary Daniels, Admirals Rodman and Jagne, governors of the western states, mayors of the bay cities and ranking officers of the fleet. Secretary Daniels will lead the grand march.

GOVERNOR TO LEAD 20,000 AUTOSTO S.F.

Land Convoy of Motor Train Will Keep Time With Big Pacific Fleet in Its Coast Run to the Golden Gate

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Two processions will start northward from Santa Cruz at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Admiral Rodman with his great armada of thirty-six ships will follow the water course along the coast to one of the greatest festes which the West has ever known. At the same hour a land escort of 20,000 automobiles and motor-driven vehicles, flying flags and covered with flowers will begin its pilgrimage alongside. Neck and neck the two stately lines will move by land and sea. From the deck of his flagship Admiral Rodman and distinguished officers of the fleet will direct the epoch-making voyage. Governor William D. Stephens and General J. Hunter Liggett and staff will be in the vanguard of the 100 miles of motors separated only by the 15 feet required under the state law. Aeroplanes and hydro-aeroplanes will lead the sea and land forces.

At the towns along the coast road hundreds of additional machines will fall into line. Fresno is sending 300 decorated cars. A triumphal way will be followed with fetes at every stop. At 12 o'clock on Sunday the coast road and its tributaries will be reserved for northbound travel only. Deputy sheriffs of Santa Cruz, San Mateo and San Francisco counties will enforce the blockade. Motorists are advised to go to Santa Cruz on Saturday to facilitate traffic.

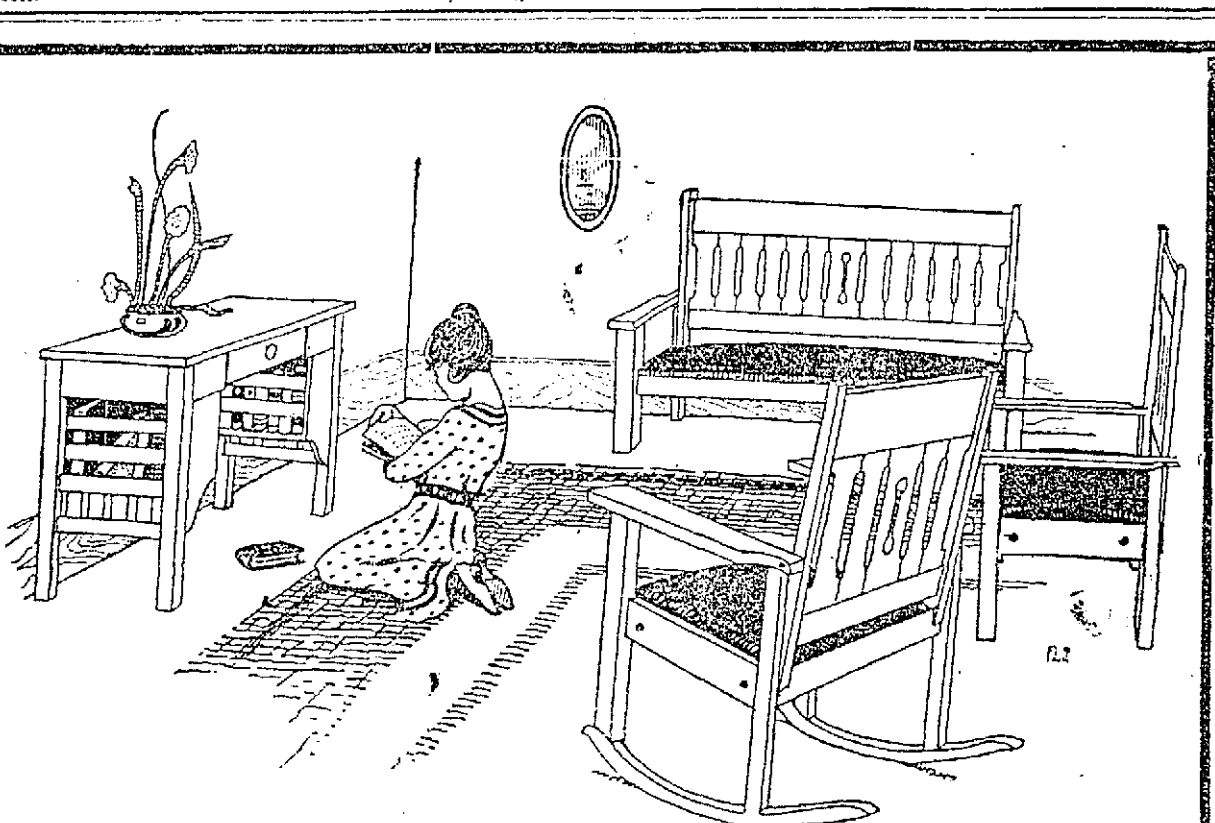

The Pacific squadron will enter San Francisco harbor some time between 10 a. m. and 11 a. m. Monday to be reviewed by Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

Blue and Gold Gossip

By DOUG. MONTELL

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Aug. 27.—First-year men who aspire to become chasers of the elusive pigskin this fall under the tutelage of Coach Nibs Price, who has charge of the destiny of the Fresh football squad at California, are out every afternoon in force in response to the call sent out for candidates for the first-year eleven. Not only is there quantity that responds, but among those who appeared came many whose quality has been proven in previous experience and the job of selecting a Bear Cub eleven from the 130 odd candidates is no small one.

"Brick" Muller to Try for the Team

"Brick" Muller, a recent Oakland local boy and former San Diego star, is one whose name has preceded him here and who is well known to Price, who had him in San Diego along with men like Spott, Deeds, Engelbrecht, Bells and Majors, now in the Freshman class. Muller, a tackle, is another man who is heralded as a coming gridiron figure.

Inter-Class Games

Commerce Sept. 6

These men and all of the other 130 Freshman candidates were seen in action for the first time yesterday afternoon when they donned the blue and gold uniforms of the California Freshman football team. The game was played for preliminary lumbering exercises. Inter-Class football is slated to start on Saturday, September 6, when the Freshmen and the Sophomores clash and the Juniors and Seniors meet in a battle for inter-class honors. The winners meet the following week to decide the campus championship. First call for varsity men will not be sounded until the inter-Class games are out of the way.

ALL SECTIONS OF STATE TO BE REPRESENTED IN TITLE GOLF MATCHES THIS WEEK

DEL MONTE, Aug. 28.—As entries continue to be received for the California State Golf Championship tournament, which commences on the 30th of the month, it is estimated that all sections of the State will be represented. Communications received from V. J. La Motte, president of the California Golf Association, and J. H. Clark, secretary of the San Francisco Golf Club, the following players have been entered: R. K. Sayer, David Lorton, S. G. Tompkins, Paul J. A. Don Hughes, E. K. Johnston, Frank O'Leary, for the championship on next Monday and Tuesday, A. J. Abrigo has been entered. W. G. Hunter of the Stockton Country Club is in line for both the open and the men's amateur titles. The tournament will be held at the Del Monte Hotel, Los Angeles. H. W. Beall, an American, Robert E. Hunt and P. J. Brown, San Jose, and L. A. P. and J. H. Clark, San Francisco, are among the players entered. There are a number of professionals already on the list to start in the championship on Monday and Tuesday. The schedule calls for medal rounds on each of the days. The winner of this competition will carry the title of the California State Golf Champion for the coming year. The amateur who turns in the lowest score will receive a handsome silver trophy.

LEADERSHIP

A fact:

With the exception of a few lower-priced brands, Fatima is the largest-selling cigarette in America.

Its sales nearly equal those of all straight Turkish brands combined.

To have won and to hold such leadership, Fatima must (and, of course, does) deliver something to smokers that money cannot buy in any other cigarette.

What is it? The answer is:

"JUST ENOUGH TURKISH."

Straight Turkish cigarettes seem to have too much Turkish—the poorer Turkish blends, too little.

Fatima, on the other hand, has "just enough Turkish."

Just enough to taste right and just enough to leave a man feeling right, even when he smokes more than usual.

Are you, personally, smoking too much—or too little—or just enough Turkish?

SHORE LEASE UP TO VOTERS OF BERKELEY

BERKELEY, Aug. 28.—Berkeley's proposed waterfront lease, now in course of construction, may be submitted by the council as an initiative measure to be decided upon by the voters of the city instead of being passed upon by the five members of the official body as was the case in the last year.

That this would be the action of the council as a means of averting further difficulties in the form of referendum petitions, became known today following a series of conferences held in the office of Mayor Louis Bartlett at the city hall with Rufus Jennings, Oakland capitalist.

LITTLE TIME LEFT
If, however, the council decides to place the lease issue on the ballot at a special election called for Tuesday, September 16, the council must be in final shape by next Tuesday, according to City Attorney Frank V. Cornish.

Berkeley's original lease awarded to Jennings by Mayor Samuel C. Irving, is now held up by a referendum petition. Under the city charter as interpreted by Cornish the council is not forced to act immediately upon another appeal of the lease or the calling of a special election.

Efforts to arrive at a lease satisfactory to all concerned are being made by the council. Jennings has understood, has duly vetoed one lease submitted by the city fathers and has drawn up another document which is now before that body.

BARTLETT CONDEMNNS LEASE
Condemnation of the original lease and suggestions for a new document were voiced today by Mayor Bartlett at a meeting of the Berkeley Center of the California Civic League at Unity Hall.

"It would seem a mistake," he said, "to tie up our waterfront, the first unit of which is expected to cost upwards of $20,000,000, in such a way that it may be entirely beyond the power of the city to develop it should the lease fail to make good in any adequate way."

"My suggestion was that the waterfront be divided into two or more units and that the lease be given the exclusive right to develop these units successively on completing the preceding one. It is possible that this method of procedure may not be permitted by the state of the Legislature. We have not yet had the opinion of the city attorney."

"The old lease provided no effective control of the project by the city and did not embody any of the planning plans. It seems to me that either the lease should contain a definite engineering program, subject to modification by agreement with the city council, or that all of the engineering should be subject to the approval of the city council step by step."

FOOD DELIVERY
BY U. S. DELAYED

Although it was announced by Postmaster Day of San Francisco that he expected to begin today the delivery of army food by parcel post, any officers of Postmaster Day and that this was premature.

Neither the supplies for San Francisco or Oakland will be delivered for several days yet, it was declared in the office of Major J. A. Thompson, army supply officer.

There are said to be more than 200 cars still on the way here, but the strike has held up many of them, and no attempt will be made to deliver until they are all on hand.

It is the aim of the army officials to prevent duplication which would result from filling out orders for certain articles at present.

Joseph J. Thompson, Oakland postmaster, announced that sales here totaled $5,000.67. Due to the exhaustion of several lines and the delay in delivery, orders have been dropped to partially nothing. Thompson yesterday told his staff to make no efforts to take orders until there is further word from the government.

Word has been received from Washington to effect the war on this food, which will reach Berkeley on several thousands of tons.

Weiler is Arrested Again; Bail $10,000

J. G. Weiler, who was arrested on an additional charge of syndicalism following the trial of the out of the courtroom of Judge Mortimer Smith yesterday, was arraigned before Police Judge George Samuels this morning.

The third charge, specifically threatening letter received by Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen, the handwriting of which is charged, matches Weiler's handwriting.

The case was put over to September 3 to be set for trial. Weiler was at liberty under $10,000 bail on the prior charge. He is not confined in the city prison where Socialist friends are endeavoring to raise $10,000 additional for his release on the latest charge.

Firemen Save Four From Flames Mother and Children Unconscious

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Firemen made a thrilling rescue today of three children and their mother who were overcome by smoke in the home of Antonio Bunch, 34 Gladys street.

Bunch himself leaped from an upper window of the one and a half story building, spraining his ankle.

Smashing their way into the house with axes, the fire fighters reached the bedroom where the woman and her three youngsters lay unconscious, and carried them forth in time to cheat the on-coming flames, which completely destroyed the dwelling and the one adjoining.

"What is the matter with Tony?" asked the little wife, when she had recovered from the effects of the smoke suffocation.

"Poor Tony!" was her comment. The officers believe that Bunch was made temporarily insane when he was trying to find that out, "an officer told her."

"Did he save much?" she asked. "Himself," said the officer. He awoke to find his room filled with smoke.

Ordinary persons forget valuable articles and save a birdcage, faced as Bunch was. Bunch saved himself and seemingly forgot all about the others of his family.

He was taken to the Central Emergency hospital, where he is under observation.

The adjoining home destroyed was that of William Holly, 35 Gladys street.

Funeral Service for Dr. Francis Musser

Funeral services for Dr. Francis Reber Musser were held this morning at the family home, 262 Vernon street. Dr. Musser died on Tuesday, following a stroke of paralysis.

He is survived by a widow, Mrs. E. L. Lusk, Musser, two sons, Edward Grafton Musser, William Alder Musser, and a daughter, Miss Margaret Musser. The services were conducted by Rev. Frank Sibley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Musser was a pioneer oculist and specialist, having established his practice in Oakland more than 30 years ago. He was a native of Pennsylvania and 59 years old.

MOTORS' FETE COINOPPOSED; ALLOW $500

Over the protest of Supervisor R. C. Staats the Board of Supervisors today voted $500 toward the fund for the entertainment of the motor transport train, due to arrive in Oakland September 8. A committee comprising Secretary Joseph E. Caine, Jesse Robinson, F. E. Garrison and others, asked for $750.

Staats said looking down the tax rate is better business than spending money on entertainment.

A wordy war developed between Staats, Caine and Robinson. Caine said that unless the money was given the exclusive right to develop these units successively on completing the preceding one. It is possible that this method of procedure may not be permitted by the state of the Legislature. We have not yet had the opinion of the city attorney."

"The old lease provided no effective control of the project by the city and did not embody any of the planning plans. It seems to me that either the lease should contain a definite engineering program, subject to modification by agreement with the city council, or that all of the engineering should be subject to the approval of the city council step by step."

JAIL OAKLANDER; SPEEDING, CHARGE

ALAMEDA, Aug. 28.—"You see, Judge," said Albert Hoey of 3336 Lester street, Oakland, to Judge J. N. Wellmann this morning, when Hoey was in court on a charge of speeding, "I flew 100 miles an hour in an airplane over France and I just can't get used to the policy of the Alameda marsh."

"The day in jail for you," softly answered the judge.

Henry Phillips, 1315 East Thirty-third street, Oakland, said: "Your honor, that is more busy of mine than I possibly make 40 miles an hour."

Quoth his honor: "If you wish we will test the speed of your machine. If it won't make 100 miles an hour, the fine. If it does make 100, you'll have to pay the fine of $25.00."

Duncan C. Stevenson, Alameda tennis player and an Oakland realty man, was fined $25 for speeding.

Police Seek Burglar
Who Left His Mark

The Oakland police are looking for a burglar who left his "mark" in the city. They don't know who he is, but they have his finger print, and he can't escape.

Alfred Smith, 13 Rockridge avenue, reported a jewelry stolen from his home. The police investigated and found the burglar's finger prints on his safe. Inspectors R. A. Williams and Con Rice are handling the case.

$75,000 HOME TO GO UP FOR CHINESE GIRLS

The erection of a $75,000 home for Chinese girls from the bay cities is the project of the Women's Occidental board of foreign missions.

The site, which is in a block and a half not far from Mills college, was purchased for the mission board of directors at a price said to approximate $5000. George S. Montgomery, Berkeley, is the really owner, said the property.

A meeting of the directors' board will be held soon. Plans will be then submitted and a campaign launched to secure aid in constructing the home. The plans call for mixed mission and Oriental lines in the building, with swimming pools, gorgeous Chinese gardens and a landscape scheme of simple beauty.

Every modern convenience will be accorded the school and home, the like of which on the Pacific coast nothing has ever approached.

The site is located in the heart of McClelland street and Calaveras avenue, one block toward from Mills college campus. Of natural beauty, it will lend itself to the best of landscaping, and the architects and construction expert, Miss Donaldina Cameron, 120 Sacramento street, San Francisco, who has charge of the Presbyterian mission in the trans-bay city, will have a leading role in the construction's affairs, it is understood. It is thought that work will begin shortly on the project.

PARADE FEATURE FOR SOLDIER BOYS

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 28.—Further plans made today in the big welcome home celebration for Saturday in which San Leandro and San Lorenzo will honor service men, point to the biggest parade and the biggest celebration ever held by any town in the upper bay region.

The parade committee, which is making a special effort to offer something every elaborate, consists of Bud Ober, chairman; A. F. Rose and M. A. Perry. The parade will be at 2:30 p. m.

A feature of the celebration that will attract attention will be the band concert. San Leandro claims a band second to none among towns of its class in California. The music committee consists of Antonio Mattos, chairman; Jesse Caldera, vice-chairman; M. J. de Silva, Miss Marie Garcia, Tom Silva and Joe Bettin-court.

Other committees that are bending their efforts to make the celebration a success include:

Laboratory committee—Charles Reid, chairman; Miss Nellie Hannon, vice-chairman; M. F. Rose and M. A. de Silva.

Publicity committee—W. J. Cannon, chairman; Mrs. W. F. Sampson, vice-chairman; Mrs. J. Karlova, William Lamberty and L. L. Mureh.

Reception committee—Mrs. P. Harperry, chairman; Mrs. Al. Thierry, vice-chairman; Joseph Chrysostomo Jr., F. B. Granger, Antonio Mattos, M. A. Perry, Mrs. N. Hooley and Mrs. Francis Hooley.

Finance committee—F. B. Granger, chairman; P. B. Cross, vice-chairman; Mrs. Al. Thierry, Mrs. Mae Maderia, Antonio Mattos, M. A. Perry and Tom de Silva.

Legions that will take part in the parade include: N. S. G. W. Estadio, parlor No. 223; N. S. G. W. E. C. No. 1, I. D. S. No. 11; Woodmen of the World, San Lorenzo; Alta Mira club, E. L. L. Red Cross Yucatan No. 38; P. E. C. No. 41; I. O. O. F. I. D. E. S. of St. John.

The committee has sent invitations to Governor Stephens and Adjutant General.

Funds for the celebration were secured by means of a dollar drive.

Students' Autos Are Barred From Campus

BERKELEY, Aug. 28.—Students who drive to college in their automobiles will no longer be permitted to step from their cars into classrooms.

Like the rest of the student body, they will be required to walk.

New traffic regulations for the campus were announced today from the president's office. No parking of automobiles will be allowed in front of any of the campus buildings between the hours of 7:30 a. m. and 5 p. m. in the district bounded by North Hall, South Hall, Engineering Building, Wheeler Hall, Library and other of the big buildings on the campus.

Further, all entrances to the university will be closed to automobile traffic between the hours of 7:30 a. m. and 6 p. m. A single exception will be made of the Collier avenue entrance to allow necessary traffic to reach the campus.

The new traffic rules, which will go into effect next Tuesday, are designed to meet the great increase in registration on the campus and the consequent large number of automobiles driven by students.

CALL FOR PRUNE PICKERS COMES FROM SAN JOSE

C. E. Sexton, superintendent of the state public employment bureau, has returned from the Santa Clara valley where he reports a great demand for labor to assist in harvesting an unprecedented prune crop. The employment office in San Jose has been swamped with orders for help and has called on the bay cities for relief.

The Oakland office at 401 Tenth street has orders for prune pickers, dry yard men and teamsters at good wages. The prunes are gathered from the ground and whole families can work together.

One employer has placed an order for twenty girls at $2.75 a day and board, applicants to furnish their own bedding. There is a chapman on the place and if enough applicants can be gotten the fare will be paid from the bay cities.

Raised U. S. Notes;
Given Five Years

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Five years in the federal penitentiary at McNeil island was the penalty imposed by Federal Judge William C. Van Fleet on Giovanni Curtis, alias Curtis, alias Romano, and Franchino Antonio, who pleaded guilty to raising federal reserve $1 notes to $5 notes.

The men were arrested at 1212 Stockton street in a raid led by Harry M. Moffitt, chief of the secret service, the indictment charging the two with 20 separate offenses. The raising of these notes was all pen work and according to testimony given by Moffitt so cleverly done as to defy any but an expert.

PEACE ENVOYS ARE WEARY OF EUROPE STRIFE

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE
PARIS, Aug. 28.—The American peace delegation, headed by Frank L. Polk, is preparing to ask President Wilson whether it is worth their while to remain in Paris attempting to solve the problems of southeastern Europe. It was learned here today.

Upon the president's reply will determine whether the Americans will remain here trying to untangle the complicated Balkan snarl, or whether they return to Washington, leaving the European powers to settle the embroglio which has arisen as a result of the Rumanians entering into Budapest.

The conference has several times warned Rumania against looting the Hungarian capital, but at latest advice the Rumanian soldiers were still removing all the material they could carry away.

It is declared in some quarters that there is no doubt that Rumania's fictitiousness is due to encouragement she has received from her European allies.

In consequence of the situation that has arisen there is serious talk at the Hotel Crillon that the Americans may pack up their belongings and go home.

LAUNCHING OF 'PUFFED BRICK' SHIP DELAYED

The Peralta, the "world's first puffed brick ship," will not be launched next Thursday as scheduled, for it is now undergoing the severest test a vessel was ever subjected to. It is filled with water to a height of seven feet above its deck line, and the water is put under great pressure. This is being done to ascertain if there is the slightest flaw in this new type of constructing "stone ships."

Thus far the Peralta has made good and the officials of the San Francisco Shipbuilding Company feel confident of the result.

It had been intended to invite Secretary Daniels to witness the launching of the Peralta from the concrete shipyard on Government Island and the Oakland Chamber of Commerce had planned some elaborate ceremonies. The arrangements will be carried out at a later date.

The Peralta was named in a popular contest conducted by the chamber. More than 350 names were submitted, the Peralta being selected by the United States Shipping Board because of the situation of the yard on the historic Peralta grant.

File Protests Against Street Improvement

Protests were filed with the city council today against the proposed improvements of West Eighth street and Washington street. Both were laid over until tomorrow for canvass of protests. The Washington street protest, Commissioner W. J. Dacus intimated, would be overruled unless the protestants agreed to "sign privately" for the work.

If you saw it in THE TRIBUNE tell them so. Thank you.

U. S. SHIP IN ORIENT ASHORE ALL RESCUE

TOKYO, Monday, Aug. 25.—(Associated Press.)—All the passengers on the United States shipboard steamer Heffron, which ashore off Bokuren, Korea, on August 18, have been landed. Most where they are remain pending the refloating of the vessel. On board the Heffron when she was aground were 333 sick and wounded Czechoslovak soldiers from Siberia and nine American Red Cross workers of whom five were women.

RANCHER OUTWIT
ROBBER; KILLS HIM

BRAWLEY, Aug. 28.—Kenneth Oliver, a rancher near here, enters his home early today and found Manuel Ruiz, a Mexican, engaged in the act of burglary. Ruiz, who was armed, forced Oliver to put up his hands, backed him into a closet and locked him in. Oliver found a r in the closet, shot through the door and killed the intruder. A coroner's jury exonerated the rancher.

FOURTEEN MEN CAUGHT HERE IN BOOZE RAID

Oakland bartenders crowded the courtroom of Federal Commissioner Francis Krell today, while the fourteen bartenders and saloonkeepers arrested last evening in the "booze raid" conducted by the federal authorities on local saloons were held in custody. Under the direction of Deputy Federal Marshal, Oakland, and Chief of Police J. M. Lynch, the raid was conducted last evening. The men were arrested on the charge of selling liquor during the federal prohibition. The federal authorities are now holding the men in custody. Gumshoe Nurse for City Hall Sick Leaves Are a-Gointa Stop Toothache Vacations Now Taboo

No more will "illness" cover a multitude of absences from the various offices of the city hall. The federal stenographer who "gets sick" and has to go to the seashore to "recover" won't get by with it any more. It's not "efficiency" and besides, the civil service board and the street inspector gets a toothache about the time there's a baseball game, the nurse, hard-boiled as she is, will probe for the malevolent molar. If the patient is sick, well and good—nurse will dig up a doctor and have him killed or cured. The idea is to get him back to work as quickly as possible. If he's not sick—well, then nurse will tell the commissioner, and he'll tell the civil service board, and the civil service board will "can" the emulating invalid. It's to be a very nice system—but not for those city employees who are too ill to say "yes" to work.

There have been too many leaves of absence for sickness and it would appear that the city hall was a very sick place, except that we hear of seashore trappings and baseball games and vacations. It is an apparently innocent ordinance, proposed by Commissioner F. P. Morse, and creating the office of a new nurse in the health department. But here's the catch: Her job is to be "personally to investigate every case of injury or illness calling for leave of absence." When Morse, or Anna, or Doris has a "headache" and doesn't show up for work, the hard-boiled professional nurse will look her up and give her the once over. When Mike

AUTO TRADE GIVES FLEET FUND $1000

Two minutes was all the time that was necessary for the Alameda County Automobile Trade Association to decide that it wanted to contribute $1000 to the fund for entertaining the men of the new Pacific fleet, and only three more minutes was necessary in collecting half the amount of the weekly luncheon of the organization yesterday.

The first committee informed the automobile trade men that the downtown merchants had subscribed $1000 to the fund and requested that the automobile men ought to subscribe at least $500.

"If the downtown merchants can subscribe $1000, we can subscribe $500," said Ernest E. Fetter, president of the association.

In two minutes a motion to subscribe $1000 was made and carried, and in three more minutes half the amount was pledged.

J. Charles Natch, speaking for James Gray, chairman of the motor club, accepted the committee's report that the committee had decided that no less than three hundred automobiles and trucks ought to turn out to meet the transcontinental motor club. The committee had decided to build a great arch of greens and flags on the foot of the hill and in the city's center. A great sign in red and blue letters on a white field would read:

"The end of the trail, Alameda County Automobile Trade Association Welcomes You."

Walter Hesse, reporting for committee appointed to consider ways and means of stimulating the "Day of the Automobile" campaign, reported that the committee had decided that the automobile men should organize a committee had called upon William Joseph E. Gandy, secretary of the automobile men, to tell the members of the association that they

Jingle Jolts

(By Harvey E. Westgate)

Apartment houses get my goat, especially the new and up-to-date, as edgers through each half-way flat and tell what's cooking on the grate; for on one floor they may fry hash, and on another broil some steak, while on a third I make a dash to miss the smell of Johnny-cake.

Some dance on ten is boiling spuds, and also cooking garden greens, and down on six some washing and mending with a pot of beans; I sniff a scent of turnips here, and one of cabbage over there, and I think I smell some lager beer that's hoarded by a millionaire.

Oh, what a bunch of smelly fumes, of fragrant ham and bacon grease, so forth from scores of little rooms, all day and night and never cease what scents we get of nutmeg stew, of oil and garlic without end, when in apartments one or two, our days and nights we have to spend.

Wants Name Changed From Nahss to Nash

George M. Nahs has had so much trouble about his name that he has decided to change it. Today he applied to the superior court for such permission. He says that all his life he has had to have a diagram when- ever he told his name to a stranger. His mother got rid of the name by marriage after his father died, and his brother assumed another name. Now he wants the courts to re- name him just plain Nash.

Train Hits Big Truck; Three Men May Die

ELI HERRA, 39, a three-man team, was seriously hurt today when a south-bound Northwestern Pacific passenger train was wrecked at McQuinn, 50 miles south of here. The train struck a big automobile truck. The injured were all in the automobile. No train passengers were hurt. Four coaches left the track.

DEMURRER IS SUSTAINED IN MAYOR'S CASE

Holding that the complaint did not state sufficient grounds to make a case, Judge J. J. Tribune yesterday afternoon sustained the demurrer against the suit of E. S. Birmingham re city order, and Attorney Jos. P. Montgomery to have Mayor John L. Hays dismissed from office for failure to perform his official duties. The new suit of the court was short and pointed.

"Birmingham, I have examined the authorities you have submitted and am convinced the court is without jurisdiction. Therefore, if it should enter a decree with this matter, it would be a nullity. The demurrer is sustained."

The complaint last considered in court when the court was divided 3-2 in its argument that the demurrer of the mayor's previous term could not be charged against his present term. The fact that he had not kept, or caused to keep, a set of public utility franchise books last term, as the charter requires, has nothing to do with the case. And his attorneys were able to bring new decisions to support their contention that the present term is too young for blame to be if the mayor has not yet discovered all his official duties.

There was ample authority in the California decisions to sustain the mayor's effort to have his private secretary appointed to the civil service board, it was stated. Between the time of George Kauffman's resignation and the conclusion of the matter of choosing his successor not more than sixty days elapsed, and that period is designated as a reasonable period during which the Mayor may constitute the board of each new term under the charter. The Mayor's subcommittee, severely criticized by the complaint, turned out to be under the authorities used in the argument, an act of official virtue, the authorities holding that the Mayor is the sole judge of the qualifications of the person whom he shall nominate for appointment, and that it is his duty, once he has decided upon the man who, in his judgment, is best qualified, to go to the lot for him in the interest of what he considers to be the best thing for the city.

Local and Alameda Ferries Report Big Passenger Increase

It is believed by many that more people arrive at and depart from San Francisco by water than in any other city in the world. Is the statement which enlivens a report on transbay travel by John K. Buzier, supervising inspector of steam vessels.

Including travel by sea and "up rivers" approximately 48,000,000 passengers were handled last year. Nearly three million more persons were carried by the Southern Pacific and Key Route ferries between San Francisco and Oakland and Alameda for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, than for the preceding year.

The total for last year was 11,755,938, as compared with 9,833,639 for the year previous.

The Southern Pacific, on its Oakland, Alameda and creek routes, and from San Francisco, carried 25,510,338. The Key Route conveyed 14,511,569.

The Southern Pacific routes include those passengers routed via Western Pacific since July 1, 1918, and via Santa Fe since August 17, 1918. This is a result of the rule of the Railroad Administration.

The Northwestern Pacific carried 2,552,113 passengers between San Francisco and Sausalito as compared to 2,229,644 the preceding year. The Monticello Steamship Company bore 441,331 passengers, whereas the total for the previous year was only 384,416. The Richmond & San Rafael ferry showed a small decrease, from 142,517 to 141,136.

The Association of Mare Island Employees carried 2,552,700 on its boats between Vallejo and the Navy Yard during the fiscal year of 1918, and 4,146,150 for 1919.

CITY'S SCHOOL SHORTAGE IS HELD SCANDAL

A scandal to the city of Oakland is the way Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of schools, characterizes the crowded conditions that exist.

The board of education has started its campaign for a bond issue of $1,800,000 for new schools, and it promises to be about as lively a campaign as the Eastbay has seen in many a day.

The school enrollment to date is more than 24,000, and is still growing. The night schools are reporting heavy attendance.

The greatest task before the citizens of Oakland is to give the children of the city a fair chance to receive an education, Superintendent Hunter said today.

The Technical High school is one of the city's busiest places these days and is offering new courses in its continuation classes. This week it is organizing its new commercial courses.

The afternoon classes are appealing to many who desire training to take civil service positions. New classes in shorthand and typewriting are being organized. Those desiring to learn more about the courses are asked to telephone Fremont 842.

U. C. Educator Would Like to Be Czar of S.F. For Eight-Year Term

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, NIA, Aug. 28.—Thomas H. Reed, former city manager of San Jose and now professor of political science at the University of California, would like to take another chance at governing a city, according to a statement made today. San Francisco is the city chosen by Professor Reed for his second attempt at city managing.

"If I were made dictator of the city of San Francisco for a period of eight years," said Reed today before a class in municipal government, "I believe that I could run the city on a strictly business basis, and I would guarantee to reduce the expenses of the city administration 32 1/3 per cent."

Professor Reed declared that he would insist on an absolutely free rein in handling the city business and that the only drawback from carrying out such a plan would be the difficulty in satisfying the people of the city.

"In fact," said Reed, "I suppose that inside of two years I would be the most hated man in the city. I would not give 2 cents for my peace and comfort during the period and would expect either to be shot or blown up. These would be the trouble of running a city on a business basis under the present conditions of city life and politics in America."

COLLEGE GIRLS TOLD TO PRAY, AVOID ROUGE

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Aug. 28.—Sixteen hundred freshmen women at the University of California were told to say their prayers and keep away from rouge boxes if they are to make successes of their college careers.

The speaker, Professor Charles Mills Gayley, dean of the faculties at the state university, delivered his advice in formally welcoming the new co-eds to the campus at a meeting held in Wheeler auditorium.

"Don't lead a vapid existence," the professor told the new students. "Keep faith with yourself. Remember, that you build yourself up, I do not live in proportion to the extent that you learn to suffer. Keep faith with your God. Don't stop going to church! Pray, and play hard—and don't paint!"

Professor Gayley urged the co-eds to become associated with a definite group of students and not to wander aimlessly through college. He advised that student activities be indulged in, but admonished that they be chosen with discretion.

The formation of house clubs and societies was urged on the campus. Professor Gayley, advocating the foundation of a new Greek letter society for women.
